There is more freedom with using the bus since reservations are not required. Bus fare is $1.25. We offer 7-day and 31-day bus passes at discounted rates. We offer discounted passes to elderly, youth, college student, and disabled riders. For information on fixed-route bus service and routes, please call 954-357-8400 or go to <http://www.broward.org/bct>. Community buses range from free-of-charge to $1.00, depending on the community. For information on community bus services and routes, please go to <http://www.broward.org/bct/communitybuses.htm>.

Travel Training: We also offer free personal travel training services for elderly and disabled riders that might be able to use the bus system but are unfamiliar with it. For travel-training information, please call 954-357-7705.

NEW – All registered paratransit clients may ride the Broward County fixed-route buses free of charge. For information, please call 954-357-6794.

ADA Paratransit: This is for individuals with disabilities that prevent them from using the regular, fixed-route buses. It involves an application process, and in most cases, an in-person evaluation. Paratransit fare is $2.50 each way and reservations are required one day in advance. It is a door-to-door, multi-load, shared ride service operating throughout Broward County. One page of the application must be completed by a licensed physician. The application takes from 7-21 business days to process. For an application, please call 954-357-6794 or go to <http://www.broward.org/bct/paratransit.htm>

Transportation Disadvantaged Nutrition Transportation: We provide transportation for elderly and/or disabled Broward County residents who are meals-on-Wheels recipients, receive meals at designated nutrition sites in the County (these sites are approved as nutrition sites by the Meals-on-Wheels Program) and have no other means of transportation available to them. No fare is required. The nutrition sites are responsible for enrolling their clients in the program.

Transportation Disadvantaged Medical Transportation: We provide transportation for Broward County residents traveling to dialysis, chemotherapy, or radiation treatments who have no other means of transportation available to them. The fare is $2.00 each way. The treatment centers are responsible for enrolling their patients in the program.

SAGE THURSDAY CO-ED DROP IN

We meet each Thursday at GLCC from 1-3 PM for a discussion of any topic that "pops" into your head; covering local and world events and exchanging information on solar/or wind power, cheaper gasoline prices, mpg on new cars, discussing new movies, great and not so great restaurants, etc. If you are new in town, or just bored with same day routines, and want to meet a great bunch of folks, come join us. You'll feel welcome and a part of the group immediately. You'll wonder what took you so long getting here. This is a SAGE sponsored activity. ■

SAGE MEN'S SINGLES GROUP ~ by John Chandler ~

The mission of the monthly gathering is to introduce men who are not in a long term relationship to other men who are in the same situation. The purpose of the monthly meetings is to meet new people, promote and develop a network of friendships for support and socializing, and to provide support to those who have lost their partners because of death or the end of a relationship.

The next meeting is on Monday, November 24, 2008. Join us for cocktails at the bar at 5:30 PM followed by dinner at 6:30 PM at Tropics. Please contact John Chandler at (954) 427-5355 or E-Mail at: stonyman4u@aol.com to make your reservation, and don't forget to wear your "RED SHIRT." This is a SAGE sponsored activity. ■

MEN'S WEDNESDAY DROP-IN ~ by Ron Catena ~

Well the 'snowbirds' are starting to return and their first stop is the Men's Drop In meeting to catch up on all the latest happenings around town. In fact Drop-In facilitator Dr. Norm Peters has asked the GLCC to remove the wall-paper from the wall of our meeting room to make more room for all the guys who attend the weekly meeting.

Attending the SAGE Anniversary Dinner held at the lovely Marriott Hotel was Drop In regular Philip Norris and his personable partner, Bill Cordes, enjoying the food and group conversation with Board Member Hank Brooks and his very witty partner, Leo Glickstein. Also enjoying the festivities was Single's Dinner Coordinator, John Chandler. The food was tasty, and the entertainment was outstanding with a surprise performance by Electra as Cher. She wowed everyone with her performance.

The GLCC recently held a Dine Around Town fund raiser. A group of restaurants participated by donating a portion of the evening's receipts to the GLCC. Enjoying dinner at a participating restaurant were Dick Schwarz, Joe Leonard, Ed Kelly, Rex Costen, Ken Merrifield and the writer.

Speaking of Ed Kelly, Ed recently held a clothing drive for hurricane victims in Haiti. That's our Ed; always doing something for others.

Drop in regulars Gary Payne and Dick Dehn marched in the New York City Gay Pride Parade in matching "T" shirts, holding a sign that read 'Together 51 Years'. They received raucous cheers from the crowd. As a result a film maker, producing a documentary on long term gay relationships, interviewed them extensively for the forthcoming documentary.

Drop In regulars on the move: Dr. David Goldberger to Europe to lecture; Dick Schwarz and his personable partner, Tom Massey, flying to Italy and sailing back to Ft. Lauderdale; Dr. Dominick Bisignano returns from a month's stay in Italy, visiting family and friends; Dr. Fabio DaSilva cruising the Caribbean with his significant other, Joe Rose, to celebrate Fabio's birthday.

If you are looking for a fun, informative, casual couple of hours, join us every Wednesday from 1-3 PM at the GLCC on Andrews Avenue. Everyone is more than welcome and made to feel at home by the other attendees.

I had thought about starting a 'Pinocchio of the Month' award to be given to the drop in member who tells the tallest tale, eventually creating a 'Pinocchio Hall of Fame.' However, the powers that be said no to the idea. Nothing says that we can't do this informally. (Ed. Note: I love the idea.)

Stay well. Support SAGE activities. Nothing beats an active social life for staying young and healthy. This is a SAGE sponsored activity. ■

SAGE'S 14TH ANNIVERSARY

~ SEPTEMBER 28, 2008 AT THE MARRIOTT NORTH ~

FROM THE EDITOR

On the morning of September 20th, the Board of Directors trekked to the new campus of the GLCC. To a man (and woman) we were immediately dumbfounded by the beauty of it all, and we hadn't gone inside yet. The complex consists of two very large, modern buildings and several out-buildings. It lies peacefully on The New River, and we could all envision having picnics and parties on the banks of the river. One of the large buildings is being restructured internally to house all the activities of the center. The other large building is almost completely rented and the rental income will hopefully pay for mortgage costs.

The purpose of the visit was to present Paul Hyman, Executive Director of GLCC, with a check for $1,200.00, our small contribution toward the Center's Capital Fund. We hope someday to consolidate all of SAGE's many activities in the new GLCC. SAGE wishes the GLCC all good fortune in the future. The local gay community is proud of your accomplishments, and surely we are the envy of other gay communities throughout the country. ■

ELECTION TIME HUMOR

While walking down the street one day a US senator is tragically hit by a truck and dies. His soul arrives in heaven and is met by St. Peter at the entrance.

"Welcome to heaven," says St. Peter. "Before you settle in, it seems there is a problem. We seldom see a high official around these parts, so we're not sure what to do with you."

"No problem, just let me in," says the man.

"Well, I'd like to, but I have orders from higher up. What we'll do is have you spend one day in hell and one in heaven. Then you can choose where to spend eternity."

"Really, I've made up my mind. I want to be in n heaven," says the senator.

"I'm sorry, but we have our rules."

And with that, St. Peter escorts him to the elevator and he goes down, down, down to hell. The doors open and he finds himself in the middle of a green golf course. In the distance is a clubhouse and standing in front of it are all his friends and other politicians who had worked with him.

Everyone is very happy and in evening dress. They run to greet him, shake his hand, and reminisce about the good times they had while getting rich at the expense of the people. They play a friendly game of golf and then dine on lobster, caviar and champagne.

Also present is the devil, who really is a very friendly guy who has a good time dancing and telling jokes. They are having such a good time that before he realizes it, it is time to go. Everyone gives him a hearty farewell and waves while the elevator rises.

The elevator goes up, up, up and the door reopens on heaven where St. Peter is waiting for him.

"Now it's time to visit heaven."

So, 24 hours pass with the senator joining a group of contented souls moving from cloud to cloud, playing the harp and singing.

They have a good time and, before he realizes it, the 24 hours have gone by and St. Peter returns.

"Well, then, you've spent a day in hell and another in heaven. Now choose your eternity."

The senator reflects for a minute, then he answers: "Well, I would never have said it before, I mean heaven has been delightful, but I think I would be better off in hell." So St. Peter escorts him to the elevator and he goes down, down, down to hell.

Now the doors of the elevator open and he's in the middle of a barren land covered with waste and garbage. He sees all his friends, dressed in rags, picking up the trash and putting it in black bags as more trash falls from above. The devil comes over to him and puts his arm around his shoulder.

"I don't understand," stammers the senator. "Yesterday I was here and there was a golf course and clubhouse, and we ate lobster and caviar, drank champagne, and danced and had a great time. Now there's just a wasteland full of garbage and my friends look miserable. What happened?"

The devil looks at him, smiles and says, "Yesterday we were campaigning. Today you voted."

SOCIAL NOTES & SAVE THE DATES

~ by Carl M. Galli ~

SOCIAL NOTES

The SAGE Cruise is history, or is just underway, thus are the vicissitudes of publishing. However, it's now time to turn our thoughts ahead to days when our snowbirds have returned for the winter, and our ranks swell. And a full and varied SAGE Social Calendar is underway to be enjoyed by all.

We have a wonderful, casual dinner party planned for you this month. A little pre-Thanksgiving bash at Shawn and Nick's CourtYard Café. Located next to Bill's, and across Wilton Drive from Georgie's Alibi, it is easy to find, with plenty of free parking both behind the Café and across the street, in the Shoppes of Wilton Manors. Arranged by Sal Orlando, the menu is simple, and filling, and priced so it doesn't interfere with your Holiday shopping. So gather up your friends and come join us at a new SAGE venue. There will be no reserved seating.

Speaking of Reservations, we are going to retool the Reserved Table System that is currently in place for our "Main Events". If you want to sit at a table with certain people, please make sure that you indicate everyone on one reservation slip. You may send in as many checks as necessary. If you fill a table, that will be "your table". If you do not, we will seat our guests wherever they wish, on a first-come-first-serve basis. Please bear in mind, SAGE prides itself on being inclusive. This is what separates us from many other GLBT organizations. So please remember to extend a warm and courteous welcome to someone whom you may not know. What better way to meet new people!

On December 19th SAGE goes to the Ft. Lauderdale Gay Men's Chorus production of "A Gift for All". This promises to be a jolly good holiday musicale, filled with all the songs and theatrics which make the season so much fun for all. This year it's being held at the beautifully remodeled Sunshine Cathedral/MCC, where parking is free. Once again, tickets are extremely limited. Please get your completed reservation slips to us as soon as you can.

Your SAGE is pleased to announce a 2009 "BROADWAY SERIES". Four theatrical productions ranging from the Tony-Award winning Musicals "Avenue Q" and "Jersey Boys", to the costumed and festooned ladies of the "Original Florida Follies" (whose profits all go to support various local charities - including The Follies' 2009 selected Charities: the Florence Fuller Child Development Centers, Tamarac Bulldogs-Special Needs Children, and Children's Diagnostic & Treatment Center for Children with HIV), and the whacky drag-comedy of "Dame Edna".

These are all hot tickets to hot shows! And may be difficult to get outside of SAGE.

A special flyer is in this issue, so you may buy tickets to one, two, three, or all four shows. You can see that we have a couple of matinees, for our members who don't feel comfortable driving at night. And each of our shows is on a Sunday to accommodate our members who work. Of course, prices range from $23 to $78.50; so that different budgets can be accommodated. But SAGE's prices remain among the lowest group rates around town. Seating is limited to ticket stock on hand, so don't delay: Send in your reservations now. We don't want you to be disappointed.

ENJOY!

SAVE the DATES:

Sunday, December 14th, our Annual Holiday Party at the Palm Aire Country Club, featuring a fabulous menu, and music for your listening and dancing pleasure by "TONY & GLORIA".

Friday, December 19th, the Ft. Lauderdale Gay Men's Chorus Holiday Show at the Sunshine Cathedral/ MCC.

Sunday, January 18th, an outing to the Flagler Museum in Palm Beach, dahlings, for a private, docent-escorted tour and High Tea. Something "North of the Border" especially for our friends in Palm Beach.

OCTOBER CRUISERS:

Get ready for smooth sailing. SAGE will have a "Private Party" in Sam's Piano Bar on the Miracle, from 2PM-3PM, on Wednesday, October 29th. We will have a bartender for cocktails on a cash bar basis (using your "Sail & Sign" cards). We'll present your door plaques, as well as a list of SAGE's guests' cabin numbers and deck assignments, so you can keep in touch. This should be a fun mixer, and all 48 SAGE guests sailing under our booking number are invited to attend.

SEE

with Carl M. Galli and Ken Goodman

Our November 17th movie is the controversial and sexually-charged Australian import "HEAD ON". You may have heard about this film, but chances are (unless you caught it in its limited U.S. run) you never saw it. Now is your chance to experience this film. But don't come expecting some of the lighter gay fluff that passes as gay independent film-making. "Head On" (as in "face your demons, and yourself...") is a real drama. With social and political connotations. It is definitely not a dramedy. At its heart is the story of a hunky, 19 year old Greek youth, struggling with his sexual identity. (Ari, played by Alex Dimitriades, in an award-winning debut).

The kettle is on the boil and Ari is about to burst with a combination of culture, sexuality and drug intake colliding to create a mixed-up rebel-with-a-cause. His parents emigrated to Melbourne, Australia, from Greece, and with them they brought a strong culture that they hang onto, even though, in their homeland, the culture has changed with the times. Like every second-generation immigrant, Ari has to fight the ignorance and hypocrisy of his parents along with his social surroundings. This creates a monster Ari carries within himself – a self-destructive energy that is spent in back alleys, public toilets, and wherever he can get it. And when people don't come over to his view of life, he manipulates them with sexual advances, testing their moral grounds. Through his love of Greek dancing, Ari yearns to keep part of his ancestral culture intact for identity purposes, but with his own freedom of expression. Can the two mix? That's what his journey is: A journey toward self expression without any rules or repression. Along the way, he has several homosexual encounters (and a clumsy heterosexual one).

This is Alex Dimitriades' role of a lifetime (for which he received the 1999 Film Critics Circle of Australia Award for Best Actor) as he chews through the character with raw conviction and wild abandon. Director (and co-writer, with Andrew Bovell) Ana Kokkinos gets right into the heart and soul of Ari, via the camera, with a confronting script, only 104 minutes long, dealing with issues aimed at any migrating culture. The rest of the cast is equally superb (and awards-nominated as well): Paul Capsis as Johnny; Julian Garner as Sean; and Elena Mandalis as Betty.

Winner of 9 international independent cinema awards (including the 1999 L.A. Outfest Grand Jury Award as Outstanding Foreign Narrative Feature, and the Milan and San Francisco prizes for Best Film and Best First Feature, respectively) and nominated for 15 others, "Head On" is arguably one of the most important GLBT films we have shown to date.

Be Advised: "Head On" is for sophisticated adults: It contains graphic scenes of sexuality, brutality, and both male and female nudity. It is primarily in English (with some English-subtitled Greek) and screens at 4PM, in Room 3 of the GLCC, on Monday, November 17th. (Rescheduled from August.) To be followed by dinner. This is a SAGE sponsored activity. ■

SAGE WOMEN
~ by Nancy Drennan ~

Nancy is still in Orlando this month. She should be back for the November luncheon. Attendance at the September luncheon was down mainly because of the change of date by the Ark. Women are creatures of habit and like the second Wednesday of the month better. This didn't stop seven Sage Women from having their monthly time together at the Ark. They enjoyed the buffet lunch and the variety of foods and desserts. The restaurant is located at 6255 Stirling Road in Davie, 954-584-3087. If you need directions, call the restaurant directly.

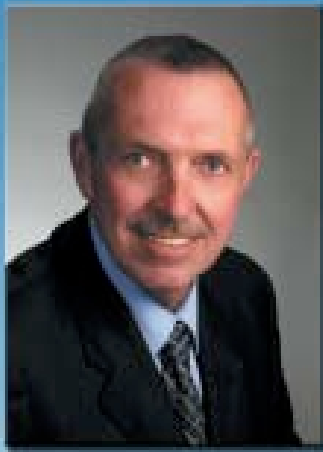

Call Nancy at 954-741-1540 for reservations for the November Luncheon The luncheon is held on the second Wednesday of each month at 12 noon. This is a SAGE sponsored activity. ■

BOOK BUNCH NEWS:
~ by Wayne Draper ~

The SAGE Book Bunch will meet Saturday, Nov. 8th, at Borders on East Sunrise Blvd. Our selection will be Book of the Dead (available in paperback) by the bestselling novelist Patricia Cornwell.

Soon after relocating to Charleston, S.C., to launch a private forensics lab, Dr. Kay Scarpetta investigates the murder of U.S. tennis star Drew Martin, whose mutilated body was found in Rome. When she discovers unsettling connections between Martin's murder, the body of an unidentified South Carolina boy and her old nemesis, the maniacal psychiatrist Dr. Marilyn Self, Scarpetta encounters a killer as deadly as any she's ever faced. This is a SAGE sponsored activity. ■

SAGE COMPUTER CLUB

~ by Ken Goodman ~

Are you tired of being upstaged by a young person who knows more than you do about computers? Do you want to be smarter than a 5th grader when using your computer? Come and learn how to use your computer more efficiently or to see what you've been missing. We discuss all aspects of the Personal Computer. We discuss Windows XP and Vista as well as Apple OSX operating systems. We start by discussing a specific topic of interest to the group which can include Security, E-Mail, Internet, using office programs, etc. We also allocate time to resolve any issues and answer questions that you may have.

We meet on the second Tuesday of each month at my house from 4 PM to 6 PM. We then go to dinner with those who wish to join us. For information and directions call the SAGE office at (954) 720-0833 or my home telephone number at (954) 969-1576. This is a SAGE sponsored activity. ■
