Celebrating SAGE: Men's Singles Dinner at Tropics on Wilton Drive.

For the past several years I have had the pleasure of coordinating the monthly single men's dinner and I can honestly say I have enjoyed every moment. Not only do I get to see so many of our members, we all get to enjoy some relaxing time together both over dinner and during the pre-dinner social hour. For years, we have held this dinner and cocktail time at Tropics on Wilton Drive where the owners and staff have been very welcoming and made us all feel very special. Not only do they accommodate us with a special dining area, we have a dedicated waiter in attendance who knows all of us by name.

Recently, Tropics was sold to new owners with whom I met and after some very pleasant conversation it was agreed that the Monday night specially priced menu will remain for our group. Not only that, but they graciously enhanced the menu by including at no additional charge either soup or salad along with the long-standing tradition of a cup of coffee at the end of dinner so we may linger and continue our lively and fun conversations.

I like it especially when first-timers arrive and I have the pleasure of introducing them to the group. We work hard at making them feel welcome and if someone shows up without a reservation we simply pull up another chair and thank them for coming.

For years we have worn red shirts or a shirt trimmed in red. If you do not have a red shirt it's no big deal -- just come as you are! The idea behind the red shirt is that we can recognize each other. Another big plus is that many of the other diners ask us about the red shirts and it's a pleasant way to strike up a conversation with a handsome gentleman.

Although this is generally a dinner for singles, from time to time we invite couples to join us and then it's standing room only. Of course, we always have our special dining area where we can all sit and enjoy each other's company.

The Men's Singles Dinner meets at Tropics on the 4th Monday of every month. Cocktails begin at 5:30pm and dinner is served at 6:30pm. Call me (John Chandler) at 954-933-2963 to make a reservation or email me at stonyman4u@aol.com. Join us and bring a friend or two. You will receive a warm welcome! (Rumor has it that cupid has, on occasion, been in attendance.) The cost for a complete dinner with tax and tip is under $20.

NOTES FROM THE SAGE CO-ED DISCUSSION GROUP (AT THE PRIDE CENTER)

At the Pride Center we are attempting to establish a viable discussion group for mature LGBT men and women. The format for these meetings is structured in that questions are asked to which participants respond. "Questioning" is an effective format to solicit dialog with our peers. You might be surprised at the really insightful answers group members articulate. Unless we are challenged in some way, we tend to react to situations in a manner that is predictable for us. However, when you hear what others have to say on a topic you will expand your thinking with different viewpoints being stated. I find it fascinating to hear opinions and ideas that are different from my own. When you get good-natured people together for the purpose of discussing you can benefit from the "combined wisdom" others bring to the meeting. We will meet on August 7 and August 21 at 1 pm in Room B208 at the Pride Center. Come join us and share your experiences and opinions with us. Everybody is welcomed.

NOTES FROM THE SAGE CAMERA CLUB

Well, the doldrums of a dog day summer have reached the Camera Club. Limited participation due to vacations, the heat, snowbirdism, and other distractions have been the norm. The few who have been able to attend have carried the torch, as we just finished a lovely afternoon on Ft. Lauderdale Beach, taking great pictures of the landscape from the Elbo Room to the Beach Place complex. After that we had a fabulous stop at Da Big Kahuna, where drinks were sipped to the sound of thunder in the background. But we all stayed dry, and returned unscathed.

Our next monthly meeting will be held at the Pride Center on Saturday, July 26th, at 1:00 PM. Our next photo op will be on Tuesday, August 12th, gathering at 1:00 PM at the Pride Center. The August monthly meeting will be held on Saturday, August 23rd at 1:00 PM at the Pride Center. Hope to see all of you there!!

NOTES FROM THE MEN'S DROP-IN

A big thank you to Dr. David Goldberger for guest moderating at a recent meeting. David comes with excellent credentials: he was a principal moderator at the SAGE of New York West Side Discussion Group... similar to our Drop-In but with New York accents.

David is a classical concert pianist who has travelled all over the world. As a loyal participant in our group he often plans his trips so he will "miss the fewest Drop-In meetings." Now that's loyalty.

I was so very pleased to see so many Drop-In regulars at the SAGE Independence Day luncheon. It was a fun event with good food, a lively interactive program of patriotic singing, a history quiz, and lots of laughter.

I heard from Dr. Norm Peters who has moderated the Drop-In for many years. Norm is on summer vacation. He called to say hello and asked me to give his regards to everyone. He says he misses us...and who could blame him? Our group is made up of a diverse bunch of guys who lead interesting and active lives while enjoying their senior years. We consistently have fun, informative meetings in a friendly, casual atmosphere and truly enjoy being in each other's company. We must be doing something right...our attendance is good and we see a lot of new people each week.

Many of our members are currently vacationing at various locations throughout the U.S. and around the world. We all look forward to their return so they can share vacation adventures with the rest of us.

So, guys, keep participating -- both by coming to the Drop-In whenever your schedule permits and always check your newsletter for upcoming SAGE events. You don't want to miss even one of our activities. Our social committee works hard to plan activities we think our membership will enjoy with an eye on convenient venues, locations, quality and pricing. Should you have any suggestions for the social committee please share them with us. We always like to hear from our members.

SAGE SOCIAL-LITES

John G. Harris

Many thanks to all 62 of you who attended the July 5th Independence Day Extravaganza at the Skolnick Center on July 5th. Our Second Annual Gala was brought to you by the members of the Social Committee, and your SAGE Board, and a wonderful time was had by all. Giacomo's picnic fare was excellent (as always), the singing was robust, the trivia quizzes thought provoking, and the camaraderie was so intense that we had trouble all day getting people to listen to the announcements. The 50-50 raffle was worth $110 to the lucky winner. Everyone had a great time, and I hereby express my heartfelt gratitude to all who helped with the festivities and to those who attended.

Our upcoming SAGE Dinner will be held at Mojo's Restaurant on Tuesday, August 19th, at 6:00 PM. See the attached flyer in this newsletter for details and to make your reservation.

For the rest of the year, we have dinners or meet-ups scheduled monthly at various venues, culminating in the HOLIVERSARY GALA on December 14th.

We hope you can attend most, if not all, of these events. Looking forward to seeing you soon...

SAGE WOMEN SAY “PLAY BALL”

Well, the uniform has certainly changed but the same spunky attitude is still here in 2014 among a small group of enthusiastic contemporary women ball players and their SAGE women supporters. The Coral Springs Women's Softball League has been playing ball for over 30 years says Barb Varga, one of the League's ball playing members as well as our own SAGE member. At the time of this printing, the League has about 100 members and is looking for more.

During the Season which starts in September, these “Girls of September” play ball at Riverside Drive & Royal Palm Boulevard in Coral Springs. Each player has her own personal glove and wears her team's uniform. If the glove fits, wear it -- and they do.

Women must be at least 18 years old to play ball but they have women playing who are in their 60's. I guess 60 really is the new 40 but you can be a “cheerleader” (spectator) at any age. Jean Johnson who attended games with Norma Wingo said “Oh honey, it was wonderful to see people our age”. I wondered what age she was referring to.

I'm told other SAGE women, Pinky, Virg & Nancy, to name a few, have been “cheerleaders” at past games. The consensus was -- “it's a nice ball park and an even nicer bunch of women”.

To join this effervescent ball playing group today or to get the schedule of games, call Barb Varga at 954-494-7631. And no, your name doesn't have to be Barb to play.

SAGE AT 20 WITH A BRICK

SAGE turns 20 this year and to commemorate this auspicious occasion we have sponsored a brick in the Pride Center garden area. Come and see it when you're at the Center. As most of you know, SAGE of South Florida is an all-volunteer organization committed to the GLBT community. We have no paid staff. We provide many services to the entire community which have included: free cultural programs, free classical and pop piano and vocal recitals, raising a significant amount of money for Breast Cancer awareness, donated money each of the 11 years of Smart Ride where we have had the famous last pit stop before the end of Day 1 of the ride, the SAGE Men's Drop-In has donated over $10,000 to the Pride Center, frequently sponsor the Tuesday Coffee & Conversation at the Pride Center, participate in the Annual Pride Fest in Holiday Park. We have contributed to the purchase of the television in room 207 of the Pride Center so that movies, classes, and clubs may use the facility.

We also have many activities each month which include monthly dining events, Lunch & Learn which includes a great lunch catered by Primavera and a speaker who talks about a topic that concerns our community, a monthly book club that discusses a book that is relevant to the GLBT Senior community, a Computer Club where you can have your electronic device questions answered and learn how to use those pesky things that your grandkids or friends use, a Camera Club that includes learning more about how to use your camera and taking photos in the area, and three successful discussion groups one for men only, and two co-ed groups, one in Palm Beach county, and one in Broward. At the beginning of each year we celebrate those who have had a milestone birthday in the previous year (turned 75, 80, 85 or 90 and above).

All our events are included on our Monthly Calendar and Save the Dates as well as in this newsletter. Come and participate. We would love to have you join us and make new friends.

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES

Ken Lowery and Carl M. Galli

Road-trip and Buddy movies have long been staples of cinema. But, with few exceptions (Thelma and Louise most notably) there have not been many featuring female protagonists.

Our August 18th movie is one of the exceptions. "Cloudburst" is an independent feature film released in 2011. (About a year before same-sex marriages were legalized in Maine.) Originally staged as a play, it was filmed over seven weeks throughout Nova Scotia.

Funny and bawdy, raunchy and heartfelt: It's a paean to a 31 year-long love affair between Stella and Dot. And their decision to flee Maine for Canada to codify their relationship.

Directed and written by Thom Fitzgerald, the film stars two Academy Award winning actresses in the lead roles: Olympia Dukakis and Brenda Fricker. Along with hunky Ryan Doucette (playing the young male stripper whom they pick up on the road) they anchor the movie -giving it heart and soul. Turning what could easily have been caricatures into real people.

The movie went on to garner rave reviews (100% on aggregator "Rotten Tomatoes") and 27 international film awards.

From IMDb.com: "...an excellent movie. The (three) stars...give outstanding performances and make the characters believable and interesting. Thom Fitzgerald takes a simple story and turns it into a wonderful journey with spectacular backdrops (and) spectacular performances from his cast....he is able to develop each of the main characters so that we really care about each of them. The minor characters are a little cliché at times, but it never takes away from the story or what makes this a great movie.... you will find yourself laughing and crying all within the length of the movie. Do yourself a favour and go see this!"

We will be showing the NR edition, featuring frontal nudity and very course language.

With a running time of 93 minutes, "Cloudburst" will screen at 4PM in Room 204 of the Pride Center. Giving us plenty of time to enjoy dinner afterwards.

NOTE: We apologize for any hiccups we've had lately. Especially as to start times. But we will be showing this at 4PM. See you at the movie!
