SAGE Has a New Board and President

By Ken Goodman

It is with great pleasure that I wish to let all our SAGE Members know of the changes to our Board of Directors and some of our committees. Carl M. Galli has been elected to the President's position. As most of you know Carl was a former President and agreed to take the position again. I am looking forward to Carl's Presidency to bring great and wonderful changes to our great organization. The remainder of the Executive Board consists of Ron Catena as Vice President, Allen Churchman as Treasurer and Ann Smith as Secretary. They have worked hard for SAGE in the past and I know they will continue their great work. The other members of the Board of Directors are Carl Barton, John Chandler, Ken Goodman, John G. Harris, Dr. Marty Horowitz, Lee Lawson, Dr. Frank Piasecki, Inez Pasher, and Bruce T. Williams. I look forward to the new SAGE year and the progress and things that the Board will accomplish.

There are some changes in some of the SAGE Committees and activities. Ron Catena is now the Chair of the Social Committee. I expect some great venues and trips led by Ron's committee. The ad that was placed in last month's newsletter for volunteers to help with SAGE's

See You at the Movies" bore fruit. We now have two new volunteers along with Carl M. Galli. They are Marc Flanagan and Michael Vita. Expect a new crop of fun movies every 3rd Monday of the month. Another of the newsletter ads came through. Michael Vita has joined me on the Newsletter Committee as Associate Editor. I look forward to working with him. A complete list of the Board and Committees can be found on the next page of this newsletter.

I want to let you all know that we have completed another SAGEWorks class. The class is designed to help GLBT seniors learn or build their skills in Microsoft Office. With these skills the students can be more productive on their jobs or have an extra skill to land a job. Three of our graduates already had jobs and they expressed that the skills they learned have helped them in being more productive at work. One of them told me his boss noticed the difference and was pleased with the results. Six students completed the course and I'm positive they will put these skills to great use. As the instructor, I enjoy teaching and watching them learn and begin picking up new skills on their own.

The SAGE Book Discussion Group meets on the 2nd Saturday of each month at the Stonewall Library, 1300 E. Sunrise Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale, from 11 AM to noon. Our May 9, 2015 selection – THE GALLERY by John Horne Burns – is set in occupied Naples in 1944. The book takes its name from the Galleria Umberto, a bombed-out arcade where everybody in town comes together in pursuit of food, drink, sex, money, and oblivion. A daring and enduring novel - one of the first to look directly at gay life in the military – it was described by John Dos Passos as “The first book of real magnitude to come out of the last war.” All readers are welcome - no reservation is required. For information, contact Philip (443) 614-7135 or Alan (561) 499-2913.

NOTES FROM THE SAGE CO-ED DISCUSSION GROUP

The monthly SAGE Co-Ed Discussion Group meets on the third Thursday of the month and we welcome your participation to join us. As mature members of the LGBT community, this group is targeted for women and men. We share our insights and experiences in a cordial atmosphere on general topics related to life, work, relationships, "memory lane", LGBT issues, and other common experiences.

The people in this group are nice! A co-ed group offers a unique perspective from both genders. We need more LGBT women in the group to ensure that dynamic of a co-ed experience.

There is no fee for participation. If you are a good-natured individual who would enjoy meeting on a regular basis with others in our age group then please consider coming to check us out.

Although it takes time to get to know others, the group experience such as this over a period of time allows all of us to get to know each other. You will like what you see and will appreciate the insights of others. Fellow group members will also get to know and appreciate your input and contributions.

Our meeting date for May is May 21, 2015 and the meeting begins at 1 pm. Please plan on joining us at the Pride Center in Room B208.

SOCIAL NOTES

Ron Catena
This is a SAGE sponsored activity

Well, bless his heart our newly elected President, Carl M Galli has appointed me Chair of the Social Committee. Therefore, I am writing this column this month. It will be brief. I have the pleasure of serving on the committee with Captain Carl Barton, our new Treasurer Allen Churchman, Dr. Marty Horowitz, Brother John Chandler and of course President Carl who, according to our By-Laws, is a member of all Committees. I like working with Carl he is not a "last minute" kind of guy so like me we strive to have all of our ducks in order well ahead of a planned event. Having worked with Captain Carl, Allen and John in the past, I look forward to a fun upcoming social season. Dr. Marty will be a great asset. We all have agreed that we want to plan fun events at nice venues at affordable prices with good food. So if any of you members have any suggestions for us, please do not hesitate to let anyone of us know.

So far what we have coming up is dinner at Chuck's Steak House on Commercial Blvd. on Sunday, May 17th at 4:30pm for cocktails (cash bar) and a 5:30pm dinner. We will have our own private room. If you have never been to Chuck's, they have a fabulous all you can eat salad bar included with your dinner choice. We have worked out a very favorable price which includes your nonalcoholic beverage, tax, tip and a lovely dessert. Sign up now do not miss this one.

Would you believe that we have already booked our venue for the Holiday Party? In order to find a nice location and suitable date we had to move fast. I told you our new President is not a last minute kind of guy. Next month I will have more information for you on upcoming events after the new Social Committee meets and plans future events.

NOTES FROM THE MEN'S DROP IN

I can proudly say that at the last SAGE Board of Directors meeting not only did we elect Carl M Galli as President several drop in regulars were either elected or reelected to the Board. Captain Carl Barton will serve as an at large Board Member, the ever efficient Allen Churchman was elected Treasurer a step up from his previous post of Assistant Treasurer, Dr. Marty Horowitz an at large Director and Brother John Chandler who has served on the Board for several years and does a great job coordinating the Men's Monthly Dinners and also works on the monthly Lunch and Learn meeting. We all look forward with working with President Carl who has served as President in the past and did an outstanding job. He is efficient, knowledgeable and personable and a delight to work with. Good luck to all!

My oh my, I am so happy that this season has brought record numbers of participants to the weekly meetings. Not only are we running with a full house, the level of conversation remains high with lots of interesting topics discussed. I imagine with such a diverse group of sophisticated men in attendance what else would you expect. Topics run the gamut from current events to local and national politics from the latest movies to old time Broadway shows. Recently I asked if any of the members remembered an old Off-Broadway show called "Little Mary Sunshine". What prompted the question was one of the members present said that he had played croquet over the past week end. In the play is a song called "Playing Croquet Is a Wonderful Way to Spend the Day". I then asked if anyone knew the words to the song. A gentleman raised his hand. I asked if he would sing it for us. He stood up and sang the song in its entirety on key!!! At the break, I asked him how he knew the words. He informed me that when he was younger he played the male lead in the show in summer stock at a resort in New York State. Now how's that for a fun addition to any discussion group. However, I firmly believe that could only happen at the SAGE Men's Drop In which meets every Wednesday at the Pride Center in Wilton Manors at 1pm. Stop by, we will give you a warm SAGE welcome.

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES

The SAGE movie for May, 2015 is "Latter Days". This 2003 production details the relationship between Elder Aaron Davis, a young man who is in the process of serving tenure as a Mormon missionary & Christian, a handsome, openly gay party boy who is successful in prolonging his adolescent-like status.

Aaron and his fellow missionaries have arrived for the start of a two year stay in Los Angeles. The characters are forced to deal with significant cultural shock, especially when they discover that their neighbor (Christian) is out & proud. While his partners cope with this conflict in various dysfunctional ways, Aaron finds to opportunity to explore this previously forbidden part of his personhood.

The film definitely has star power, highlighted by Jacqueline Bisset as a worldly, tolerant restaurateur & Joseph Gordon-Levitt as an antagonistic, ambitious missionary. Contributions abound with performances by Steve Sandvoss (Aaron), Wes Ramsey (Christian) and Mary Kay Place ("Mary Hartman, Mary Hartman").

Latter Days director/writer/composer, C. Jay Cox, was raised Mormon & served on a mission prior to coming out. Despite the film being semi-autobiographical, Cox sought consultation from cast members about comedic nuances (displayed throughout the movie) and LGBT Mormons regarding church rituals (including those affecting Aaron & his character development).

The production was released unrated due to several nude and kissing scenes. Other than mild profanity, nothing else about the film is objectionable.

"Latter Days" will screen with subtitles on Monday, May 18 at 4pm in Room 204 of the Pride Center. The 108 minutes of air time will allow viewers the opportunity to dine afterwards before engaging in their evening plans.
