agencies to benefit this year include two from Broward County -- the Children's Diagnostic and Treatment Center and the Pride Center. West Florida's agency will be the Metro Wellness and Community Centers. Miami-Dade will be raising funds for the Positive Connections Support and Research Center; Monroe County will donate to AIDS Help; Central Florida to the Miracle of Love; and Palm Beach County will donate to the Comprehensive AIDS Program.

Every dollar pledged to SMART RIDE will go directly to the six agencies. As crew we have been asked to raise money for these worthwhile organizations. If you would like to donate please send your pledge to the SAGE office and make sure you earmark it for SMART RIDE 9.

Thank you in advance for contributing to such a worthy cause.

Once again it's time for the annual SMART RIDE. This year will be the 9th ride to benefit six HIV/AIDS agencies. The ride begins November 15th in South Miami and ends on November 17th in Key West.

Registration has been outstanding, bringing in 500 riders before the July cut-off date. If you would like to volunteer there are still some slots left on the crew and support teams.

As is our tradition, SAGE will sponsor Pit Stop 4 on the first day and assist at Key West High School on day two.

Our Pit Stop will be located at the Long Key State Park (MM 67.5). Feel free to drop in and say hello if you happen to be down that way on the 16th. Five SAGE members, Ann Smith, Caroline Leto, John Gearrity, John Harris and Ken Goodman will represent our organization. (We will be joined by John Baxter and Chuck Panozzo (bass player for Styx).)

SMART RIDE 8 was very successful last year, raising more than $680,000 for six agencies. The six

See You at the Movies

John Gearrity and Carl M. Galli

The SAGE movie for October will be All About Eve and will be shown in the new room for SAGE movies, room 204 at the Pride Center, on October 15th at 4PM. The location for the-movie-after-dinner will be announced prior to the movie.

All About Eve

was nominated in 1950 for a record 14 Oscars and won six. Based on the story, The Wisdom of Eve, by Mary Orr, it is an elegantly bitchy backstage story revolving around an aspiring actress. Anne Baxter, as Eve Harrington, strives relentlessly to upstage Margo Channing (Bette Davis) as she claws her way to the stardom she wants so desperately.

Brilliant, biting dialogue accentuates this iconic film with magnificent performances by Bette Davis, Anne Baxter, George Sanders, Celeste Holm, Thelma Ritter, Hugh Marlow, and a great cameo by Marilyn Monroe!

Joseph Mankiewicz wrote and directed the screenplay just as he had done the year before with Letter to Three Wives. (He received two more Oscars for his work in this film.) Davis and Baxter were both nominated, but alas... George Sanders was the only member of this outstanding cast to win. The film, itself, won the Oscar for best picture of the year.

This is Bette Davis's best ever performance! SEE IT!

Whoever said paper books are a thing of the past has never met the SAGE @ Stonewall Book Club. Every second Saturday of every month at precisely 11AM the group meets to discuss new favorites and the classics, fiction and non-fiction. E-books stay home; this is a place for books on paper...scarred covers, bent pages, underlines, highlights...books to be flipped through, read with respect and discussed with respect. It's a place for deep thoughts and humor.

On the table I spot a beat up paperback... "Got this for a quarter at a flea market," says its proud owner. Another member found a book at a library sale; it still has the protective plastic sleeve on the cover.

Moderator, Bill Greaves, has been a book club member for about 14 years. An avid reader he finds that he "enjoys whatever book the members choose."

Richard Werner is "fairly new to the book club." He says he enjoys discussing the books chosen by the members. While not a prerequisite he finds that the books often have a gay slant by a gay author.

Jose Solernou said "he has been attending faithfully for almost 20 years, is also an avid reader, enjoys non-fiction and likes specialized books chosen by the club."

Stop by some second Saturday. You'll meet some terrific readers, and just maybe you'll meet a new book...on paper, of course. Books chosen are always available in paperback or can be found at the Stonewall Library or public library system.

Who Are We?

We are SAGE! And you all know you have interesting stories to tell. Were you a roller derby queen... maybe you worked the line in Detroit for Ford...walked the iron on tall buildings?

Doctor, lawyer, nurse, police officer, clothing designer, secretary, teacher, construction worker, athlete? What does retirement mean to you? What does SAGE mean to you?

Many of you would really enjoy sharing your stories but hate to write. No problem Give us a short interview, let us take your picture and you're in.

We are SAGE!

Meet Dr. Frank Piasecki

He walks carefully into the SAGE Men's Drop-In one Wednesday afternoon and immediately sits down...not in the front row...more toward the middle. He's a little hesitant, seems kind of shy and then it hits...he's the new kid in school.

School is a thing Frank knows a lot about. He has been either a student or educator all his life. He is a product of Chicago public schools, the University of Dallas (BA, cum laude), Southern Methodist University (MA) and the University of North Texas where he received his PhD in education. He was a teacher (fifth and sixth grade English) and Director of Staff Development and Technology for the Dallas, Texas school system for 38 years. (Once you have taught a classroom of restless eleven and twelve year olds it is not really that hard to manage 3,600 school administrators and 54,000 students.)

As a high school student Frank earned pocket money and honed his typing skills engraving name tags for pets. In those days most dogs were named either Fido or Rover (what, no "Buster?") and many lost pets were reunited with their owners because of those name tags. He was also a cashier and delivery boy for a local pharmacy.

Frank was married for 21 years and has three children with whom he is very close. He and Robert, his partner of 18 years, retired from Dallas to south Florida about a year ago. He is a member of SAGE of South Florida, regularly attends the Wednesday Men's Drop-In and SAGE on the Border/SOBA in Boca Raton. He loves travel, movies, sunbathing at Sebastian Beach and will, when pressed, admit to an addiction to Wheel of Fortune.

Welcome to south Florida and SAGE Frank!

Wednesday Men's Drop-In

Where: The Pride Center.

When: Every Wednesday from 1PM to 3PM.

Welcome all men, no reservation required.

This is a SAGE sponsored activity.

I always write about the wonderful guys who attend the Wednesday Men's Drop-In so I thought it was time to show you all a group photo. Our crack SAGE photographer dropped by one Wednesday afternoon to capture us for posterity. Unfortunately, the first shoot was a bust so she returned the next week for a "do over." As a result, I present for all the world to see, this "museum quality" portrait of some of the best guys I have had the pleasure of meeting.

It will be quite apparent to keen observers that many of our members are former Abercrombie and Fitch models. Some of us still do the occasional modeling gig...mostly for glamorous publications like Construction Today and the odd heavy equipment catalog. Recently, three of us posed in front of a construction crane with the headline “Our New Crane Can Lift Anything.” We did not get paid in cash, however, we were given coupons good for any “all you can eat” buffet in south Florida.

Seriously, if you are looking to meet some pretty terrific guys and engage in lively sometimes serious, sometimes funny conversation that covers a wide range of topics... please join us.

We meet every Wednesday from 1PM to 3PM at the Pride Center where our moderator, Dr. Norm Peters, does an outstanding job of moving things along.

I am sad to report the passing of SAGE member and Drop-In participant, John Ritter, after a brief illness. John spent most of his adult life in Italy where he was renowned as an accomplished vocalist and a patron of the arts. A memorial service celebrating his life was held shortly after his passing. The service was well-attended by members of SAGE and especially the Drop-In group.

SAGE activities will continue at a whirlwind pace in October.

When Tropical Storm Isaac blew through in August, the buffet at Tropics had to be postponed. This event has been rescheduled for Sunday October 14 from 6PM to 8PM. If you previously signed up for this event, just bring yourself and be prepared to be dazzled. Stick around for the entertainment, or stroll Wilton Drive to quench your musical (or other) delights.

Once again, SAGE will participate in the Senior Health Expo on Saturday October 20 at Pride Center. Come visit the exhibitors and receive health screenings while meeting your friends.

The dine-around continues on Tuesday October 23 at 6PM when we convene at J Marks of Fort Lauderdale. If the food isn't sufficient to have you sign up, let us entice you with two-for-one drink specials available until 9PM. Danny, our host for the evening, makes all this possible.

The annual SAGE excursion (What Cruise?) will begin Monday October 29 with superb dining and ports of call (Nassau and Key West) that put the party into Halloween. Whatever event SAGE sponsors, I hope to see you there! This is a SAGE sponsored activity.

Attention SAGE Cruisers!!!

You recently received an email from Eric of CruiseDeals.

Special Announcement Regarding Luggage Tags from Royal Caribbean

As of August 1st, Royal Caribbean is no longer sending luggage tags in advance. When you are at curbside, before you go into the cruise terminal, ask one of the baggage porters to tag your check-in bags and give them your name and they will put them on each tag. Typical tip is a couple of bucks.

Or, if you just bring carry-on size bags, you can take those with you as you board. However, Carl clarified with Eric, as far as we know, you can still print your luggage tags from the Royal Caribbean website from which you obtain your Boarding Pass.

ENDING HOUSING DISCRIMINATION AGAINST

LESBIAN, GAY, BISEXUAL AND TRANSGENDER INDIVIDUALS AND THEIR FAMILIES

*Enriching and Strengthening
Our Nation*

The federal Fair Housing Act prohibits housing discrimination based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, and familial status (i.e., presence of children in the household). The Fair Housing Act does not specifically include sexual orientation and gender identity as prohibited bases. However, a lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender (LGBT) person's experience with sexual orientation or gender identity housing discrimination may still be covered by the Fair Housing Act. In addition, housing providers that receive HUD funding, have loans insured by the Federal Housing Administration (FHA), as well as lenders insured by FHA, may be subject to HUD program regulations intended to ensure equal access of LGBT persons.

Examples:

1. A gay man is evicted because his landlord believes he will infect other tenants with HIV/AIDS. That situation may constitute illegal disability discrimination under the Fair Housing Act because the man is perceived to have a disability, HIV/AIDS.
2. A property manager refuses to rent an apartment to a prospective tenant who is transgender. If the housing denial is because of the prospective tenant's non-conformity with gender stereotypes, it may constitute illegal discrimination on the basis of sex under the Fair Housing Act.
3. An underwriter for an FHA insured loan is reviewing an application where two male incomes are being used as the basis for the applicants' credit worthiness. The underwriter assumes the applicants are a gay couple and, as a result, denies the application despite the applicants' glowing credentials. This scenario may violate HUD regulations which prohibit FHA-insured lenders from taking actual or perceived sexual orientation into consideration in determining adequacy of an applicant's income.

If you believe you have experienced (or are about to experience) housing discrimination, you should contact HUD's Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity for help at (800) 669-9777. You may also file a housing discrimination complaint online. HUD will thoroughly review your allegation to determine if the claims you raise are jurisdictional under the Fair Housing Act.

Additionally you should contact your local HUD office for assistance with alleged violations of HUD programs regulations.

If you have a general question or need information about reporting a violation of HUD program regulations or the Fair Housing Act, please email LGBTFairhousing@hud.gov.

Finally, many state, city, and county laws specifically include sexual orientation and gender identity as prohibited bases. You may wish to contact your state or local human rights agency to determine coverage under those laws.
