LGBT Elder Americans Act of 2012

As the number of Americans age 65 and older surges over the next few decades, the number of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) older adults is estimated to double to 3 million by 2030. The available research shows that: LGBT elders have fewer sources of support compared to heterosexual individuals and therefore face higher poverty rates and experience poor health and health access. While many Area Agencies on Aging (AAAs) are willing to offer LGBT cultural competence training to their staff, very few offer LGBT-specific programs or outreach. Less than half report they would be able to offer or fund LGBT-specific services. Overall, there is insufficient research on the needs of LGBT older people, the programs that could reduce these disparities, and whether aging providers are effectively serving them. Lastly, long-term care ombudsmen are a vital part of the nation's aging network, assisting hundreds of thousands of individuals every year, yet they are not empowered to collect data on any discrimination they might discover, including complaints of discrimination by LGBT older adults. Because of these profound challenges, Senator Bennet introduced the LGBT Elder Americans Act of 2012 to ensure that LGBT elders receive the unique services and supports they need to improve their economic security, social support, and overall health and well-being by:

- Including LGBT older adults as a vulnerable population with the greatest economic and social need under OAA.
- Permanently establishing the National Resource Center on LGBT Aging, the country's first and only technical assistance resource center aimed at improving the quality of services and supports offered to LGBT adults.
 The National Resource Center on LGBT Aging will provide critical information and tools to aging service providers, LGBT organizations and LGBT older adults through: a comprehensive clearinghouse of online resources (Igbtagingcenter.org); a national in-person, cultural competence training program; and technical assistance that links service providers and older adults seeking help to available resources.
- Requiring the Assistant Secretary of Aging to oversee data collection on LGBT older adults and their service needs and mandates data collection and analysis on the effectiveness of the state agencies on aging and the AAAs in targeting services to LGBT older adults.
- Requiring long-term care ombudsmen to collect and analyze data relating to discrimination against LGBT older adults in long-term care settings.
- Prioritizing research and development grants for organizations working to improve LGBT health, long-term care needs and access to culturally responsive services.

This legislation is endorsed by key LGBT elder advocacy groups such as Services and Advocacy for GLBT Elders (SAGE).

SAGE MISSION STATEMENT

SAGE of South Florida is a non-profit organization for Senior action in a Gay Environment to enrich the lives of the GLBT senior community through membership inclusive of age, gender, race, nationality and religion. We believe this can be accomplished by sponsoring social alternatives To provide personal interaction, offering educational opportunities to deal with the special needs of aging, and promoting contact with the isolated and homebound persons of our community. SAGE is also an advocate for the concerns and needs of the senior community at large, providing referral information on community resources and promoting inter-generational communication in the GLBT community. SAGE was founded in 1994 as a Florida "not for profit"

Our monthly newsletter is partially underwritten by advertising revenue. We have a written fee schedule for various sizes and number of months. An insert, instead of display advertising, is also available for business and organizations at a very reasonable rate. Contact the SAGE office at 954.634.7219 or email at sagesofl@gmail.com for more information. Appearance of an advertisement in this newsletter does not constitute endorsement by SAGE of South Florida, Inc. of the service being offered. We thank our advertisers for helping us pay for printing this newsletter. Do you have friends or family who own a business? Ask them to place an ad in THE SAGE. We appreciate our business supporters. As members, let's support them in return.

SHARING SAGE WITH OTHERS

Reconnecting with old friends and meeting new acquaintances is a great part of the SAGE tradition. We invite you to share this tradition by inviting someone new to SAGE to one of our many SAGE-sponsored events. Share the camaraderie and support found among SAGE members with others.

When you invite someone new to any SAGE-sponsored events and that friend joins SAGE, he or she will become a SAGE of South Florida member for the reduced fee of $25 for their first year of membership.

SAGE MEMBERS IN NEED

Please contact the AADRC (Aging and Disability Resource Center) at 954.745.9779. It is a one-stop center for information and referral services available to seniors and their care-givers in our community.

Sam Feldman

Just a few months shy of his 100th birthday my dear friend Sam Feldman passed away peacefully in his sleep. I can remember so clearly, almost as if it was yesterday, I was standing by the door of the meeting room at the old GLCC waiting for Drop-In guys to arrive for our weekly meeting. Sam walked in and asked "Am I in the right place for the SAGE meeting?" When I assured him that he was we introduced ourselves and we talked about what the Drop-In was all about. Sam said, "I won't know anybody here." I invited Sam to sit next to me and I would introduce him to the guys. For the remainder of the time Sam attended the meetings he always sat next to me and we developed a warm friendship. As time went on Sam told us that he was in his 90s. His partner of many years had passed and Sam thought it was time for him to begin socializing again. And socialize he did! He attended most SAGE events and faithfully attended the Drop-In for many years. His contributions to the conversations were always insightful and positive.

SAGE MEN'S SINGLES GROUP John Chandles

Are you a single man who enjoys the company of other single men? If you do then we have an evening for you. Every 4th Monday of every month, SAGE Board member, John Chandler, co-ordinates cocktails and dinner at Tropics restaurant in Wilton Manors. Cocktails, lively conversation and flirting begin at 5:30 (we hear that cupid has shown up on occasion). At 6:30 the party moves into the dining room where we enjoy a terrific dinner followed by complementary coffee. Prices are reasonable and the food is always wonderful (as is the company). We usually wear red shirts so that we can all recognize each other.

Our next dinner will be held on Monday, November 26th. For reservations please contact John Chandler @ 954.933.2963 or e-mail @ stonyman4u@aol.com and don't forget to wear your red shirt! This is a SAGE sponsored activity.

SAGE AT STONEWALL BILL Greeves

"Absolutist" is a term for a soldier who refuses any wartime actions. In this story one faces a firing squad and his mate is forever damaged. SAGE at Stonewall meets once a month to discuss books of interest to the LGBT community. We invite all readers to join us in engrossing conversation every month at the Stonewall Library. We will meet on Saturday, November 10, 2012 at 11AM at the Stonewall, 1350 E. Sunrise Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale.

All readers are welcome, no reservation required. Any questions, please contact me. Thank you. Bill Greeves - 954.523.8656

Sam lived the "Good Life." He was an extremely successful businessman, author and patron of the arts. He always had a twinkle in his eye and greeted everyone with a warm smile and a firm handshake. Sam lived well, enjoyed fine dining and every year hosted a birthday for family and friends at Ruth's Chris Steakhouse where there would sometimes be over a hundred guests in attendance.

For the past several years the members of the Drop-In would host a birthday luncheon in Sam's honor. Last year we hung a sign that read "Happy 99th." Sam arrived, looked around and said "99! Who's 99?" He then proceeded to tell me with that twinkle in his eye that he thought the waiter was a good looking guy. That's how I will always remember our dear Sam.

As we all get older let Sam's life be an inspiration. Stay active and socialize. And what better way is there to socialize? Attend the Wednesday Men's Drop-In where you will meet a lot of Sam Feldmans. They are vibrant well read interesting men of significant accomplishment and they will welcome you with a warm smile and a firm handshake. The Men's Drop-In group meets every Wednesday at 1PM at the Pride

See You at the Movies

John Gearrity and Carl M. Galli

In honor of Veterans' Day, our November 19th film is War Stories. A little seen, but critically-lauded indie gem, this movie was released in 2009, and marks the Directorial Debut of auteur Lee M. Whitman (who also wrote the screenplay, and served as cinematographer and producer). For Tim Curtright (Michael Brenton Gordon), life in his quiet Kansas hometown seems boringly ordinary. Along with his gay best friend, Austin (Mark Ayesh), and girlfriend, Laura (Sara Hammond), life consists of school, dances, and an occasional party. So it is that in researching a history project for school, Tim is stunned to discover that his father didn't die in the Gulf War as he had previously been led to believe. With his conservative mother, the local community, and a mysterious FBI Agent standing in the way, Tim and his friends have to find a way to break through a generation of lies and secrets, and discover what really happened to his father? Thrilling, mysterious, and provocative, War Stories challenges viewers to ask themselves: "Just how well they know their family's past?"

From TLAVideo.com: "This is a fantastic piece of work from a debut director. Tautly written, inventive...with twists and turns that keep you guessing right up to the very end."

And from IMDb.com: "...you only get one chance to make a first impression. Whitman, with his feature debut, does one hell of a job! His natural cinematography abilities make you forget that you are watching an indie film. He takes risks with camera angles that turn out so amazing that I'm sure (they) will be mimicked.

The editing is smoothly done...the story, as well... deals with so many issues that this film is a must see for every individual. The actors give such... emotional performances that you develop a deep love/hate relationship with each one within minutesWar Stories is unarguably a film for the heart, mind, and soul! Whitman is absolutely brilliant and I am excited to see what is next for him!"

We will be screening the Unrated Version of War Stories on Monday, November 19th, at 4:15PM in Room 204 of the Pride Center. With a running time of 113 minutes, there will be plenty of time afterwards to discuss this film at dinner.

SAGE 18th Anniversary I

On the 23rd of September SAGE of Soth Florida celebrated its 18th birthday. Congratulations gang, SAGE is old enough to party. And so we did at Tropical Acres in Fort Lauderdale.

It was nice to see that one of SAGE's favorite venues was back and ready to celebrate with us. It was also nice to see everyone dining on the restaurant's famous roast beef, a full dance floor and much mingling.

SAGE has done a lot for the older LGBT community in its 18 years and we plan to continue for at least 18 more.

Dinner @ Tropical Acres

In the next issue of the SAGE newsletter I will look back on our past and give everyone a tantalizing glimpse of our future.

Your board of directors and I are looking forward to the events and programs we are planning for the coming year.

We hope to see you all at every event.

Social-lites

Marc Flanagan

November continues to provide SAGE members with a lot of exciting social events.

Tuesday, November 13th, is the day of our field trip to The Museum of Discovery & Science at Fort Lauderdale's Riverwalk. We will gather in front of the museum at 12PM to view the movie on the enormous IMAX screen. After our immersion in the IMAX experience we will move on to the exhibits where we will see some of Florida's indigenous wildlife, embark on simulated trips to Mars and the Everglades, and learn about the intricacies of airline engines. (See the enclosed event flyer for museum parking options.)

Wednesday, November 14th, marks the inaugural play of our 2012-13 Broward Center season with Million Dollar Quartet.

SMART RIDE Southern Most AIDS/HIV Ride Twenty-Twelve November 16-17

As one of the crews working a Smart Ride Pit Stop, we have been asked to help raise money for several organizations fighting HIV/Aids. If you are interested in helping those who cannot help themselves please donate. If you would like to help SAGE defray our organization's expenses while we do our bit for this worthy cause please donate.

All contributions are welcome. Thank you.

SAGE will, once again, be out in force for this matinee and other Broward Center performances throughout the season.

, November 22nd, is forget your diet day.

We hope you will all get to spend Thanksgiving with good eats and good friends.

And remember, whatever event SAGE sponsors,

I hope to see you there.

This is a SAGE sponsored event.

Attention SAGE Cruisers!!!.

Just a reminder from Eric of CruiseDeals.com:

Your Oct 29th cruise on the Royal Caribbean *Majesty of the*Seas is right around the corner. I am sure you are all looking forward to having a great time. As the sailing will be cruising on Halloween, I hope you bring your costumes with you and show off. But before the festivities get underway, I must urge those of you who haven't completed your required online check-in on the Royal Caribbean website to please do so. If you have a valid passport that has at least 6 months of validity on it from the day your return on November 2, 2012 (that would be an expiration date of May 3rd 2013), then please have that ready when completing the check in process.

If you don't have a passport, not to worry - a Certified Copy of your Birth Certificate will be required PLUS a government issued photo ID such as a Driver's License or state issued ID card.
