FEBRUARY 2013

Give from the Heart Campaign

It's already February and Valentine's Day is just around the corner. As many of you remember we have our main fundraiser starting in February called "From the Heart".

I need to reinforce that without your generosity SAGE cannot provide the services and events that we have over the years. In December, I looked back at all the things SAGE does and what we want to continue to do.

The membership fee we charge doesn't even pay for the mailing, printing, and distribution of the Newsletter, let alone the other things we do for the community and our membership.

Our participation in PrideFest, the Milestone Birthday Celebration, Smart Ride, CarFit, and the free Community Concerts among many other things we provide are dependent on your generosity.

As a SAGE member we support your needs as well as keeping our GLBT community healthy. We work closely with the Pride Center, SunServe, and other groups that help to keep our community going strong and safe. All the events we provide are designed to break even at best. We supplement some of our services to try to allow our members to participate. Your tax deductible contribution, be it big or small helps us at continuing our ongoing programs and add others as needed.

We will be sending a survey to you, our members, to solicit your views on our activities and services so that we may serve you better. This survey will give each of you a chance to make yourself heard and affect how we move forward in the future.

To keep SAGE of South Florida helping and providing education, entertainment, events and services to the older GLBT community we need your support in the following ways:

1. Contribution to the "Give from the Heart" campaign.
2. Give the Board input on our membership survey.
3. Those of you that are willing and able to volunteer, we would ask you to speak to Ken Moore and Frank Cavanaugh. Also, if you wish to become a member of our hard working Board please send a short description of your experience to the SAGE Office and our Nominating Committee will consider your request.

So, please send your contribution to the SAGE Office and thank you for your generosity and your help in continuing making SAGE of South Florida the Premier, most Prestigious Senior LGBT organization in our community.

Wednesday Men's Drop-In

It's February already and we are enjoying a full house at the Men's Drop-in meetings. Recently, we have had some extremely interesting visitors. Professor Eirik J. Saethre of the University of Hawaii stopped by; his father is a Drop-In regular and invited the professor to come by and meet the guys.

Eirik is a medical anthropologist working with the indigenous peoples of Australia and New Zealand. He generously gave us an overview of his work and research. It was probably one of the most interesting talks I have ever had the pleasure of hearing. When he finished he opened the floor to questions and there were many. Obviously most of the guys enjoyed his informal presentation as much as I. Thank you professor.

February is the month we celebrate Valentines Day. I always look forward to Valentines Day. Supposedly Cupid is lurking everywhere. This year I plan on going on the prowl in my skinny jeans (just like the young guys are wearing) and a tank top with Cupid on the front. The printed message on the back

SAGE MEN'S SINGLES GROUP

John Chandler

Are you a single man who enjoys the company of other single men? If you do then we have an evening for you. Every 4th Monday of every month, SAGE Board member, John Chandler, co-ordinates cocktails and dinner at Tropics restaurant in Wilton Manors. Cocktails, lively conversation and flirting begin at 5:30. At 6:30 the party moves into the dining room where we enjoy a terrific dinner followed by complementary coffee. Prices are reasonable and the food is always wonderful (as is the company). We usually wear red shirts so that we can all recognize each other.

Our next dinner will be held on Monday, February 24th.

For reservations please contact John Chandler @ 954.933.2963 or e-mail @ stonyman4u@aol.com and don't forget to wear your red shirt!

2013 Schedule: TBA

says "Always Available." I have a new bottle of Old Spice purchased at the Dollar Store and plan to douse myself. If anybody would like to join me, meet me at Home Depot anytime after 5PM on Valentines Day.

February is also the month when SAGE kicks off its annual fund raising drive. We ask our members to give whatever they can so that we can continue to bring our members and the rest of the community some wonderful programs and events.

If you have never been to a Sage Men's Drop-In meeting, we meet every Wednesday from 1-3PM at the Pride Center for an open discussion. We are not a support group... mainly we're a laugh, learn and share bunch of gentlemen. Oh, I know, occasionally we do have a "roll your eyes...and oh no, not again" moment, but we listen and treat everyone with respect. Oh, and HAPPY VALENTINES DAY!

See You at the Movies

John Gearrity and Carl M. Galli

The SAGE movie for February will be Bagdad Cafe an off-beat comedy and will be shown in our SAGE movie room (204) at the Pride Center on February 18th at 4:15PM. The location for dinner after the movie will be announced prior to the screening.

Bagdad Cafe was released in 1987 and filmed in California by an all German crew and under the working title Out of Rosenheim and directed by Pierce Adlon. Included in the cast are Marianne Sagebrecht, CCH Pounder, and Jack Palance.

The film begins with a fight between a German tourist and her husband while they are driving across the desert. She storms out of the car and happens upon a truck stop run by a tough-as-nails and short-tempered owner whose own husband, after an argument out front, is soon to leave as well.

This jewel of a story is about the common threads that connect disparate people and succeeds in creating a cinematic gem that is both hilarious and touching.

Among several awards that went to this film both here and in Europe, was an Oscar nomination for best actress (Sagebrecht). She did not win.

In 1990, the film was turned into a TV series starring James Gammon, Whoopie Goldberg, Cleavon Little and Jean Stapleton. It ran for one season.

Enjoy the film. See you at the movie!

First, let me say that our First Annual SAGE Milestones Birthday Celebration was phenomenal! Nearly 100 SAGE members gathered at the Pride Center on January 13th to honor those of us who reached significant birthday milestones in 2012. Honorees ranged in age from 75 to 95 years and we all joined in wishing them many happy returns.

The party was catered by famed Chef Giacomo of Primavera, and was, as always, a feast to remember. Of course, there were many congratulatory speeches, musical accompaniment by Dr. Deric Bownds and the Gay Men's Chorus, and my favorite part of any birthday party, birthday cake! Happy birthday guys and gals, we love you!

SAGE plans to make this a yearly event so we hope to hear from those of you who will reach a major milestone in 2013. Really, who doesn't love a birthday party?

I am really stoked about the SAGE Valentines Dine and Dance, to be held at Primavera Restaurant on Sunday, February 10th beginning at 2PM. No, it's not due to me having a "main squeeze" (perhaps this will happen next Valentines Day); it's because of the entertainers, The New Connection.

The duo features Tony Vento and Doug Carter, vocalist and pianist, respectively. You may or may not be familiar with their music; they recently relocated to South Florida and are very much in demand. In fact, when Tony and Doug provided their demo tapes, my fellow board members and I gave them our ringing endorsement. Their music is certainly eclectic, ranging from the big band days to today's modern hits. This event is guaranteed to put you in an amorous mood for the real Valentines Day!

Remember, whatever event SAGE sponsors, I hope to see you there!
