2013: The Year That Was.

When the SAGE membership responded to our survey at the beginning of 2013, they were divided as to whether SAGE is a social or a social and advocacy organization. Your board works hard to accomplish both. This article will review 2013's activities of note that included social and advocacy accomplishments.

Let's start with the first major activity of the year, the Milestone Birthday Party. The board chose to begin this event to celebrate those members who have reached a major birthday milestone. The entertainment included Dr. Bownds's wonderful piano playing and music by the Gay Men's Chorus. This coming year we have extended the eligible ages to include all who are 90 and above. We have at least four members in this group and they're all going strong. Bravo!

The SAGE Survey 2013 also gave birth to other activities:

We started a program called Meet-Ups, which are gatherings at specific venues where members do not have to pre-register and when they arrive they can partake of the venue's activities as they wish. This allows for much more flexibility. We had much success at the Lester's meet-up but did not do as well at the Boomer's miniature golf event. The survey also gave life to the Co-Ed Discussion Group and the SAGE Camera Club. Both of these activities are enjoying much success.

The remainder of our social activities for the year included our Annual Meeting, Valentine's Day Dinner Dance, dinner at Zuckerello's, our Annual Picnic this year at Colohatchee Park, our Annual Cruise on the Eurodam, the Broadway Series at the Broward Center, dinner at Peter Pan Diner and many others. We also have many regularly scheduled social activities that include our Men's, Women's and Co-Ed groups, our movie presentation each month, our Computer Club and others.

We were involved in many advocacy projects to help support our community. SAGE has sponsored a Pit Stop for the full ten years of Smart Ride. We were one of the original sponsors and we continue our support. We are proud the Smart Ride 10 raised over 1 million dollars in 2013. We not only sponsored Pit Stop 4 but our members participated with the registration and the motorcycle groups.

We have continued the tradition of offering the community free concerts in both classical and popular genres. We were sponsors for many of the activities our community supports, including the Health Expo, the Food Drive prior to Thanksgiving, the Toy Drive prior to Christmas, the School Supplies Drive and several Coffee & Conversations during 2013. This is just a sampling of the support that SAGE gives our community.

SAGE and the Pride Center also embarked on a major community project called SAGEWorks. SAGEWorks is supported by AARP and Walmart under the central guidance of SAGE USA. SAGEWorks helps GLBT participants 40-years and older to look and find a job using the AARP Job Search program, a definite help at our age where age discrimination exists. SAGEWorks also offers training in basic Office computer software and presentations on issues to support the job searchers.

Now you have it, a summary of some of the things SAGE has undertaken in 2013. We, your Board of Directors, will continue to fine-tune and add programs and services that will support our community and also enhance our membership's experience.

NOTES FROM THE SAGE Co-ED DISCUSSION GROUP

On the first and third Thursdays of each month the SAGE Co-Ed Discussion Group meets at the Pride Center. Although this is a fairly new group, a core of attendees has been showing up and it is great to see the same good-natured people on a regular basis. It is really ideal to have mature LGBT men and women meet together and discuss a variety of issues and topics in a friendly and cordial environment.

As group facilitator I pose questions (one at a time) to the group. Each person has the opportunity to respond to the question. (Anybody can "pass" on the question if he/she chooses to do so.) Since participants do not know the questions before they are asked, they have to think pretty quickly to articulate their answers. It is fascinating to hear what our peers have to say about certain issues or to relate some of their experiences. (Here is an example of a previously asked question: Do you have any pet peeves?)

Over a period of time you get to know some very fine people that you otherwise would not have had the opportunity to become acquainted with. We will meet on Thursdays (January 2nd and January 16th) at 1PM in Room 207 upstairs at the Pride Center.

Come check us out. Everybody is welcomed as we all have our stories to tell.

NOTES FROM SOBA

Hello again,

SOBA continues to thrive and grow with new members joining all the time. However, for those of you who can't make it up to SOBA, now is your opportunity to attend a similar group at the Pride Center in Ft. Lauderdale. It's been a plan of Frank Piasecki's since the fall and now it has come to fruition. From all accounts, it is doing very well.

We have had the pleasure of two newcomers recently, John and Ralph, who contribute a great deal to our already exciting group. Such diversity...its amazing!

Spicing up our group is Antonio, our tour guide from Italy, who attends whenever he is in town visiting Allen. Bruce's two charming sisters have attended as well. My, my it seems we are now internationally known.

One of the perks of SOBA is that occasionally someone hosts a potluck which does much to lift the morale of the group. This year there many hosted by different members.

Stay the best you can be, happy holidays.
Til next time...

A bunch of us just got back from zooming around the Caribbean, shooting everything in sight through our rose-colored lenses. I shutter to think how many of you really want to join, so our next two meetings will be held at the Pride Center on December 28th and January 25th, from 1-3PM. JOIN US !

SAGE SOCIAL-LITES

Ron Catena

'Twas three weeks before Xmas when a hardy crew of SAGE members boarded the Holland America Eurodam for our annual "What Cruise" cruise. As some of you might have already heard it wasn't the driest cruise we've ever taken, but... it was fabulous just the same! Our first port was Turks & Caicos on a hot sunny morning. Of course, that meant an almost mandatory trek to Margaritaville and a bunch of frozen margaritas (all I can say is: thank goodness Margaritaville is only about 200 steps from the dock or some of us might still be there). Next stop... San Juan... and the deluge! And If you think a little drizzle (think Noah and the ark) could stop our intrepid crew you're obviously not a shopper. Many of our members were caught short without rain gear (or deer) as they waded through the streets from shop to shop. St. Thomas was drier although a very beautiful mist came over the hills and enveloped the port. Fortunately, it lifted in time for our crew to return to the ship and set sail for Half Moon Cay with its white sands and deep blue sea. It was a wonderful cruise and many of this year's intrepid sailors plan to sail away with SAGE again next year!

As our membership grows so do our events. This year our Annual Holiday Party drew over 70 members to the Westin. Since Santa was a little under the weather he sent his favorite elf to do the honors. Scratch-off tickets for all (only the winners know who they are)! Once again, the Westin did itself proud: great service, friendly staff, scrumptious dinners, and a wonderful fun-filled time for all! The entertainment provided by Sissy & Damon was fabulous and some of us even managed to sing along to the old standards.

Don't forget our upcoming events... Milestones Birthday Party in January, a concert by Dr. Deric Bownds in February, and for all you lovers out there the Annual Valentines Party in February. Make your reservations now!

See you all next month!

Are You Having a Milestone Birthday in 2013?

SAGE would like to celebrate any member who is having a milestone birthday in 2013 with our Annual Milestones party which will include a dinner at our January 26, 2014 event. A milestone would be that you are celebrating a 75th, 80th, 85th, 90th or over 90th birthday any time in 2013.

If you will have a milestone birthday in 2013 please let us know so we may treat you.

Please call the SAGE office at 954.634.7219.

Please let us know by ASAP so that we may plan this event.

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES

John Gearity and Carl M. Galli

The SAGE movie for January will be shown on January 20 at 4:15 pm at the Pride Center in Room 204 on the second floor.

The movie will be Lifeboat and is an American war movie from 1944 directed by Alfred Hitchcock from a story written by John Steinbeck and stars Tallulah Bankhead (YES!) as well as Hume Cronyn, William Bendix, Walter Slezak and others making a cast of 9 excellent actors in this exciting story of British and US civilians who are stuck in the North Atlantic Ocean after their ship and a U-boat sink each other in combat.

The film follows the lifeboat inhabitants as they attempt to organize their rations, set a course for Bermuda and coexist as they try to survive.

The characters start out being good-natured, cooperative and optimistic about being rescued. However, as they get into desperation, dehydration and frustration with each other, the stories of the stories of the characters are examined, and divisions of race, religions, sex, class and nationality are brought to the surface.

It was Hitchcock who came up with the idea for the film. He approached A.J. Cronin, James Hilton, and Ernest Hemingway to help write the script before giving the project to John Steinbeck, who had previously written the screenplay for the 1941 documentary

The Forgotten Village but had not written a fictional story for the screen.

Lifeboat was originally planned to be filmed in Technicolor with an all-male cast, many of whom were going to be unknowns.

While modern critics see the film positively, Lifeboat's portrayal of a German character in what was perceived in a positive fashion, caused considerable controversy at the time of its release.

The film is unique among Hitchcock's American films for having no musical score during the narrations; the Fox studio orchestra was only utilized for the opening and closing credits.

Tallulah Bankhead, never a major player in films, was buoyed by the success of Lifeboat. She was nominated for an Oscar She didn't win. She did win in this category by the New York Film Society. Hitchcock won an Oscar as best director.

Once again there is a cameo of Hitchcock. See if you can pick it out. It appears 24 minutes into the film.

As usual we will be going to dinner following the movie. We'll announce the choice at the close of the movie and ask for a show of hands of those who would like to join the group.

Please help us by returning your chair to stacks against the side walls. THANK YOU!

See you at the movie!

DESIGNATE YOUR EMERGENCY CONTACTS ON YOUR FLORIDA DRIVERS LICENSE

You can register two emergency contacts with the State of Florida linked to your driver's license. It's quick, easy and free, and is one way that loved ones can be notified in the case of an emergency. I have done it myself, and I encourage you to take advantage of this service as well.

This service will allow you to provide emergency contact information to law enforcement in the event of an emergency. You can now go online and enter two (2) emergency contacts on your Florida Driver's License (electronically) which can only be retrieved by a police officer through the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (DHSMV) website located at: <http://flhsmv.gov>.

This information may save crucial time if ever it becomes necessary to contact family members, or other loved ones. This service is only available to those holding a current Florida Driver License or Florida Identification Card. The emergency contact information can only be accessed by a police officer.

As a Fiduciary, I have a duty of utmost care and loyalty to my clients and part of my financial planning practice is to look at everyone's overall needs and not just financial needs, and when I come across something useful, I like to pass it on.
