The White House Conference on Aging July 13, 2015

SAGE USA is participating in this year's White House Conference on Aging

The Issues

The White House Conference on Aging (WHCOA) only happens every ten years and it sets national aging policy for the next decade. In 2015 it will be held on July 13th. The major topics/themes of the WHCOA are:

- ☐ Retirement Security
- ☐ Healthy Aging
- ☐ Long-Term Services & Support
- ☐ Elder Justice

Our Priorities

Share your voice by taking SAGE USA's easy online survey. (See below.)*

It is imperative that we gather as many comments from LGBT older adults as we possibly can to ensure that our community's voices are heard and that the issues of LGBT older adults are addressed in Federal aging policy. From our policy analysis, we think the areas where LGBT voices can have the most impact are:

- ☐ Advancing non-discrimination protections
- ☐ Seeking culturally competent services and supports
- ☐ Asking for data collection (if we are not counted, we don't count)

Through this process we hope to:

- ☐ Shape an environment for LGBT aging policy asks on a local, state and Federal levels
- ☐ Maximize the engagement and input of LGBT elders, allies & donors Project the relevance of our SAGE affiliates as leaders & change agents
- ☐ Build the national SAGE brand and increase media recognition

We are committed to extensive constituent and donor engagement through LGBT participation in WHCOA regional summits, giving SAGE constituents opportunity to contribute their voices and using social media to inform/engage constituents and donors.

*To add your voice to this vital conversation go to SAGE Matters and take the survey.

NOTES FROM THE SAGE CO-ED DISCUSSION GROUP

SAGE Co-Ed Discussion Group Meets Again on Thursday, September 17, 2015

Are you new in town? Would you like to develop a rewarding social rapport with other mature LGBT adults? I would like to extend an invitation to you to become an active member of this group. Well, whether or not you are new in town you should still consider joining the monthly discussion group which meets on the third Thursday of the month at the Pride Center at 1pm. (Our group will not be meeting in July and August because we follow the same schedule as the Pride Thursday morning meetings.)

The members in this group are nice! We are cordial, polite, respectful and friendly. If you like interacting with genuinely nice people then this group might be ideal for you. Furthermore, the LGBT co-ed membership offers a unique perspective of hearing responses from both genders and from people with vastly different backgrounds and experiences. At times the dialog is fascinating.

The format of the group is one in which the group facilitator asks a general question to the group.

SAGE CAMERA CLUB JULY 2015

The SAGE Camera Club Monthly Meeting for May was held on Saturday, May 23rd, at the Pride Center. Five of our members attended, and we were joined mid-meeting by the Vice President of SAGE, Ron Catena. Many gorgeous photos were shown, questions were answered, and Allen Churchman showed us the highlights of his recent 22-day Atlantic/Mediterranean/European vacation. The July Monthly Meeting will be held on Saturday, June 27th, 2015, at 1:00PM, at the Pride Center, Room 206.

If you have any interest in photography, please join us at the next meeting. Happy Photoing !!

by John Harris

Question topics vary from current events, "memory lane", social issues, work and travel experiences, etc.

This format ensures that all participants will be given the chance to respond. So even if you don't know anybody in the group, you will still get a fair opportunity to reply. You will hear what others think on a given topic and they will hear from you too. This really is a good way to solicit participation from all.

(Note: you can always pass on a question if you prefer not to respond—we're easy going.)

Although it takes time to get to know others, the group experience such as this over a period of time allows all of us to get to know each other. You will like what you see and will appreciate the insights of others. Fellow group members will also get to know and appreciate your input and thoughts.

There is no fee for participation. If you are a good-natured individual who would enjoy meeting on a regular basis with others in our age group then please consider coming to check us out.

Mark your calendar for Thursday, September 17 at 1pm. We meet at the Pride Center in Room B208.

SOCIAL LITES

Ron Catena

Your Social Committee is working hard to avoid the “summer doldrums” for our members. The highlight of the summer season will be the July 19th Piano Recital given by Dr. David Goldberger at the Pride Center. While David is busy practicing, the “behind the scenes” volunteers are busy with the logistics of making sure everything is in order for our guests to enjoy the program. Captain Carl Barton will see to it that the room is set up properly. Carl has several helpers, among them Sonny Miller, and the Pride Center’s Clarence Collins, who is always a big help.

Following the recital, a SAGE dinner is planned at the Zagat rated Sette Bello Italian restaurant. Dinner co- chairs are Ron Seidle and Fred Vega. Assisting them will be Allen Churchman and John Chandler. So far the plans are going well. Look for the flier in this newsletter for more information. In August, it will be Mexican food at the Jalisco restaurant. This event is in the works. More details to follow.

On Wednesday, July 1st the Men’s Drop In group will have a special Independence Day meeting with light refreshments and a brief sing-along of patriotic songs, followed by a fun U.S. Trivia quiz. There will not be a July Lunch and Learn since the first Saturday of the month will be Independence Day and the Skolnick Center will be closed. Your Social Committee wants to hear from you if you have any suggestions or ideas for future events. Stay active.

Participate in SAGE activities.

NOTES FROM THE MEN’S DROP IN

Ron Catena

So for years I have been raving about the interesting and talented men who attend the SAGE Men’s Drop In. To prove a point our very own drop in loyal regular Dr. David Goldberger is turning ninety years of age. So what does a ninety year old accomplished classical pianist do to celebrate this milestone birthday? He gives a Piano Recital!!!!

David is widely known as a pianist, teacher, and lecturer. He has recorded works of Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert and Clementi for Opus records. Over fifty volumes of music bear the name of David Goldberger as editor. David is a frequent judge of contests and auditions. He has performed throughout Europe and Mexico.

He spent forty years on the faculty of Mannes College of Music in New York City.

David will perform on Sunday, July 19, 2015 at 2 pm in the Main Hall of The Pride Center. After the recital, light refreshments will be served compliments of the SAGE Men’s Drop In group. The concert venue will be managed by Carl Barton and assisted by Sonny Miller, who will be Refreshment and Seating coordinator. Allen Churchman, John Chandler and I will assist where needed.

The program will be open to all, free of charge. Seating is first come, first served. Please invite your family, friends and neighbors to experience this brilliant performance by David.

David requests no gifts please. Now he tells me!!!

What am I going to do with the airline tickets and hotel accommodations in Tahiti? Oh well, I guess I will have to go myself.

Special thanks to all the volunteers working behind the scenes to make this a very special event.

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES

with Carl M. Galli
& Marc Flanagan

The SAGE movie for

July, 2015 is "Mommie Dearest". This 1981 production details the relationship between Joan Crawford & her adopted daughter, Christina. One of the reasons for the movie's enduring success is Joan's bipolar-like characterization, displayed by Faye Dunaway.

The film is based primarily on the book by the same name as the movie (published in 1978). Despite embellishments in the movie, the most outrageous scenes were pretty true to what Christina described in her biography. Unfortunately, it was those incidents that prevented "Mommie Dearest" from achieving Academy Award recognition. Regardless, it has endured as a camp classic for over 30 years & remains very popular in GLBT circles. Contributing to the story is the supporting cast. Diana Scarwid (Christina-adult) comes across as rebellious, yet eager to please her ungracious mother. Rutanya Alda's character (Carol Ann) is a combination of several homemakers, nannies, drivers & all around fixer uppers that were employed in the Crawford household. The late Steve Forrest (Gregg) portrayed the lawyer/agent who brought Christina into Joan's life & Mara Hobel (Christina-child) was impressive by knowing how to push Joan's emotional buttons. This is apparent on the numerous occasions when she looked Joan straight in the eyes. It is notable that the movie sustained some fallout by the important players. Dunaway demanded that perspective interviewers not ask her anything pertaining to "Mommie Dearest". Christina objected to what she perceived as her mother's negative portrayal throughout the film. On the other hand, the film maintained a genuine quality by employing Joan's wardrobe person and hairdresser, as well as consulting with numerous family friends (including Kirk Douglas).

The production was released PG; however, physical & verbal abuse (mainly by Joan) is prominent throughout the film. While the occasionally racy language is tame by modern standards, there is one profane word uttered for (perhaps) the first time in a movie.

"Mommie Dearest" will screen with subtitles on Monday, July 20 at 4pm in Room 204 of the Pride Center. The 129 minutes of air time will allow viewers the opportunity to dine afterwards before engaging in their evening plans.

Social Security Defines Policy for Same-Sex Married Couples Agency Extends Benefits Broadly, Subject to Legal Constraints

Social Security has published new instructions that allow the agency to process more claims in which entitlement or eligibility is affected by a same-sex relationship. These instructions come in response to last year's Supreme Court decision in U.S. vs. Windsor, which found Section 3 of the Defense of Marriage Act unconstitutional.

This latest policy development lets the agency recognize some non-marital legal relationships as marriages for determining entitlement to benefits. These instructions also allow Social Security to begin processing many claims in states that do not recognize same-sex marriages or non-marital legal relationships. We have consulted with the Department of Justice and determined that the Social Security Act requires the agency to follow state law in Social Security cases. The new policy also addresses Supplemental Security Income claims based on same-sex relationships.

"As with previous same-sex marriage policies, we worked closely with the Department of Justice," said Carolyn W. Colvin, Acting Commissioner of Social Security. "We are bound by the law within the Social Security Act, and we have to respect state laws. We remain committed to treating all Americans fairly, with dignity, and respect." If a person believes he or she may be entitled to or eligible for benefits, they are encouraged to apply now.
