New Discussion Group in the Works

Now that we are recovering from our election hangover, recent events make clear how appropriate a study and discussion group is at this time, how clueless we can be at understanding what really runs our show. Members from both SAGE of South Florida and Prime Timers have expressed interest in forming a CO-ED contemporary topics or ideas group, perhaps meeting biweekly, that would discuss topics across a wide range of areas (science, politics, education, psychology, technology, etc.).

Individual sessions might use, as a starting point, essays of the sort found at websites such as www.edge.org or www.ted.com/talks. Also, outside speakers might be recruited.

Deric Bownds (deric.bownds@gmail.com) has volunteered to collect the email addresses of those interested in such a group. So, if you are interested, please email him. Women are VERY welcomed.

Some of the suggested topics for discussion include:

- Monogamy
- legalization of marijuana
- the privatizing of Social Security and Medicare
- the Electoral College
- the psychology of liberals and conservatives
- the ethics of globalism, nationalism and patriotism
- the nature of conflict

At this point more than 30 have expressed an interest.

For further information, look for an Eblast about format, leadership, frequency of meeting, discussion topics, location, etc. which will be sent to our membership afterward. (Or go to our Website: www.sagewebsite.org)

Any questions, please contact John at 954-933-2963 or Email him at stonyman4you@aol.com.

Co-Ed SAGES OF SAGE

Frank Piasecki

On the 3rd Thursday of the month a very friendly discussion group of "mature" LGBT seniors meets at The Pride Center. All we do is talk—in response to questions posed by the group's facilitators. This is one of those groups where you don't need to worry about coming because you don't know anybody. Everybody gets his/her fair chance to speak so even newcomers will feel included and free to easily participate. Since we meet for just over an hour and finish right at noon you are also welcomed to join those who wish to enjoy lunch at a local restaurant. There is no reason for you to stay home when you can schedule a friendly event such as this where you communicate with your peers on relevant issues.

I have noticed that since some in the group are getting to better know one another, much of the discussion can be lively, interesting and insightful. You will be asked your opinions or perhaps something about some of your previous experiences. The best part (at least for me) is that our discussions are NOT debates. Even though there may be differences of opinion, the meeting is not confrontational.

Our next meeting will be December 15th at 10:45 am in Room B207 at The Pride Center. Let us hear what you have to say. Everybody is welcomed.

SAGE WOMEN'S LUNCH

Nancy Drennen & Jean Johnson

Every 2nd Thursday of the month, the Women of SAGE of South Florida meet at the Golden Corral, 7401 Commercial Blvd.,

Tamarac 33319 at 12:00 pm. Here they meet, greet, eat and have conversations on current happenings. Call Nancy at 954.741.1540 for information. The restaurant's phone is 954.623.6400. Reservations are not required.

SAGE COMPUTER CLUB

Ken Goodman

Would you like to feel more confident when using your computer, smartphone, tablet, or any other type of internet connected device? You should join us at the SAGE Computer Club. Bring your questions and problems and we will try to help you solve them. No question is too basic. We want everybody to learn and become better at using their devices.

If you have a laptop computer, smartphone or tablet you can bring it with you to help resolve your problem. We discuss Windows, OS/X, Android, Windows 10, iPhone and Apple iOS operating systems. The Computer Club meets every Wednesday at 4:00 pm in the AV Room 206 least an hour. The meetings of the SAGE Computer Club are held at The Pride Center. Also, if you wish, you can join us for dinner after the meeting at a nearby, reasonably-priced, gay-friendly restaurant.

SAGE Book Discussion Group

Philip Collier & Alan Dorfman

From a variety of sources that include mission records, photographs, oral histories, diaries and interviews, Will Roscoe's anthology - Living the Spirit - provides a broad view of male and female homosexuality in Native American cultural history. Of particular note is its presentation of the views held by the various tribes in terms of their degree of tolerance to the idea of homosexuality and cross-gender roles. While the book's primary focus is on gay Native Americans, it also takes a look at how the dominant Europeans/American 'white' culture interpreted and eventually changed Native American cultural values. Please consider joining in a discussion of the book on Saturday, December 10, at the Stonewall Library, 1300 E. Sunrise Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale, from 11 AM to noon. All readers are welcome - no reservation is required. For additional information contact Philip (443) 614-7135 or Alan (561) 385-8260.

SAGE OF SOUTH FLORIDA PRESENTS

THE FLORIDA GRAND OPERA

On Sunday, October 16, 2016, SAGE of South Florida presented The Florida Grand Opera. Presented free to the community, the concert was standing room only.

NOTES FROM THE MEN'S DROP IN

Ron Catena

Well, we all have a lot to be proud of. The attendance at the Men's Drop-In continues to increase. We had a very fun year of good conversation with the Presidential election providing us with a basket of topics to discuss. Though not always in agreement, the members voiced their opinions in a polite, dignified way. Our Drop-In policy - "no topic is off limits; no member shall be disrespected" - works well.

We celebrated Thanksgiving with a full Thanksgiving Day turkey dinner in the main hall of the Pride Center. We also celebrated Valentine's Day, Saint Patrick's Day, and are planning another fun holiday party in on Wednesday, December 21st. Our musical director Captain Carl has arranged for our pianist, Kris Nicholson, to perform. As always, reservation for this luncheon is required and can be made at Drop In. A very special thanks to Patrick Vida for always providing a selection of home-made desserts for everyone to enjoy.

By now many of our dear snowbird friends have returned and we welcome them with open arms (sort of). The SAGE Men's Drop-In group meets every Wednesday at 1:00 pm at The Pride Center. If you read last month's SAGE newsletter, the front-page article was about the importance of socializing as we age. What better way to do just that then by attending an informal drop in meeting for good, fun conversation with a group of fun, interesting guys?

Stop by. A warm welcome is guaranteed.

SOCIAL LITES

Ron Catena

As we end the year, I would like to thank the hard-working members of the Social Committee and all our volunteers who help make our SAGE events fun. With Captain Carl Barton, the ever-efficient Allen Churchman, the very generous Patrick Vida, Brother John Chandler, Dr. Marty Horowitz, together with the SAGE Board of Directors and the helpful input from our dear President Carl Galli, we have dazzled our membership and the community with many successful events. The highlight of the year was SAGE presenting the Florida Grand Opera in concert in the main hall of the Pride Center. This event was open to everyone free of charge. The performers sang beautifully. The large audience showed their approval and appreciation with a sustained standing ovation at the concert's conclusion. SAGE provided refreshments for a meet and great reception with the performers after the concert. SAGE Received many "thank you's" and "bravo's" from those in attendance. We were assisted by our dear volunteers Michael Gagne, Jerry Murphy, Richard Fraser, Sonny Miller, Kathy Macchio, and Clarence Collins of the Pride Center.

Once again SAGE will present Broadway veteran Michael Vita in concert on Sunday, December 18th at 2:00 pm in the main hall of The Pride Center. Last year, Michael's concert was literally, and I mean literally, "standing room only". This is Michael's holiday gift to the community and is open to all. Invite your family, neighbors and friends. The concert will include a holiday "sing along." SAGE will provide refreshments with a special thanks to SAGE member Jack Myers.

Our holiday party will be held at Galuppi's on the golf course in Pompano Beach on Sunday, December 11th at 2:30 pm. Don't miss this very popular event. Reserve now.

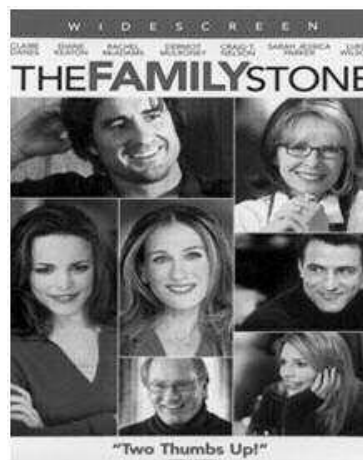

Marc Flanagan

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES

Michael Vita

The SAGE December Movie is The Family Stone. This 2005 film portrays a heterogeneous group who gathers for the holidays. Even though this clan has ample individuals to fully occupy the dinner table (and provide a good time), it's the other invitees that contribute to the compelling storylines.

Among the cast are Di-ane Keaton (Sybil) who portrays a matriarch who does everything to keep the environment festive, despite harboring a big secret from most of her family. Sarah Jessica Parker (who was nominated for a Golden Globe Award for Best Actress as Meredith) makes an initially negative impression on the family as the fiancé of Sybil's son (Everett, played by Dermot Mulroney). Completing the roster are Claire Danes ("Homeland"), Craig T. Nelson ("Coach" and "Parenthood"), & Rachel McAdams ("Sherlock Holmes" Trilogy). Ty Giordano plays the gay, hearing impaired "Theo", who provides balance to the offbeat characters.

The Stones abides by a set of rules that run counter to those of Meredith. Despite her and Everett being unmarried, the family just assumed they would be cohabitating. When Meredith doesn't go along with this arrangement, Sybil takes the path of least resistance by telling her to sleep in the room of one of her daughters. Since Meredith is either neurotic or just a malcontent, things get even more haywire. While conflicts are bountiful throughout the production, let's just say that these tiffs and complications are all resolved in a generally positive fashion. After all, it is the Holiday Season!

Many viewers will appreciate how most of the cast, when communicating with Theo, used American Sign Language. While their efforts are a source of humor with malapropisms, this demonstrates their inclusiveness. "The Family Stone" is rated "PG13" with several utterances of profanity. It will screen with subtitles on Monday, December 19 at 4:00 pm in Room 204 of The Pride Center. Its 103 minutes will allow viewers the opportunity to discuss the proceedings as we dine afterward.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

As you know, unlike almost every other SAGE Affiliate, our SAGE is an "All- Volunteer" organization. We have no paid staff. We don't receive any financial support from any other organization. We rely on our small membership fees, and donations from members and the community, to be able to continue with our activities and programs and events on behalf of the Elder LGBT Community of Broward and Palm Beach Counties. So now, at this time of year, when you're buying gifts or figuring you taxes, why not drop a little something in our "stocking".

Thank you. And Happy Holidays.
