SAGE of SOUTH FLORIDA

presents

Dr. Deric Bownds

In a Piano Recital in Memory of

Dr. David Goldberger

Sunday, February 19, 2017, 2-4pm at The Pride Center

David Goldberger was born on July 25, 1925 and passed away on May 27, 2016. He was a Lifetime Member of SAGE of South Florida. Loved and respected by all who knew him, he was a brilliant man, but also an earthy man. Regaling his SAGE Drop-In friends with tales of his world travels, in pursuit of music and art and culture -as well as his "more raucous" times as a member of New York's West Side Discussion Group, a pre-Stonewall Gay Advocacy Group. He was instrumental in forming our own SAGE Concert Series -with "The Four Doctors" (all PhD's) being among our highlights. He performed a Schubertiade in honor of his favorite composer, Franz Schubert. And, at the age of 90, he performed a solo piano recital for our community -to a packed house, which was followed by a Birthday Celebration (arranged by SAGE with some donors). To which he said, "OK. But absolutely no gifts. At my age, what do I need?" David held a PhD from Columbia, and was retired from the faculties of Mannes College of Music, Hunter College, and Long Island University. Schubert once said, "It sometimes seems to me as if I did not belong to the world at all." And perhaps the same can be said of David Goldberger when he was playing: There was something beautiful and ethereal about him.

Deric Bownds (one of "The Four Doctors") and a renaissance man in his own right, said: "I will always savor and recall the many hours spent with David... He was an exceptional teacher and friend. I was in awe of his focus, humor, and energy. His amazing piano recital on his 90th birthday was a fitting climax to a life well-lived."

It is in this spirit that SAGE of South Florida is proud to present Dr. Deric Bownds in a musical tribute to his friend.

Deric Bownds is professor emeritus of Molecular Biology and Zoology, University of Wisconsin, Madison. He retired from being chair of the Zoology Department in 2001. In studies spanning 28 years, his laboratory discovered important steps in how light changes into a nerve signal in our eyes. He has been a recital pianist since his youth. More recently he has studied, and lectured on, the biology of the mind, giving talks to both SAGE and Prime Timers groups. In 2005 he began to spend most of the year in Fort Lauderdale, joined SAGE, and partnered with Dr. David Goldberger to do several concerts of pieces written for one keyboard and four hands. He then began to give annual SAGE-sponsored solo recitals, and is dedicating this recital to the memory of David Goldberger, playing pieces from the early romantic repertoire that David studied and performed.

For the last two pieces on the program, written for four hands, Deric will be joined by Roger Rundle. Roger taught and performed in New York City over a period of 20 years before moving to Florida, giving his recital debut in Carnegie Hall in 1977, followed by subsequent recitals there and at Tully Hall at Lincoln Center. He served as musical director of the Bel Canto Opera from 1970-72 and on the faculty of the School for Singers in Katonah, NY from 1974-1988. For 16 years, he directed a classical music program for Cunard Cruise Line, which offered evenings of opera, chamber music, and piano concerts. He now maintains an active performing and teaching schedule in Fort Lauderdale. Please see the enclosed flyer for program and more information.

SAGE Book Discussion Group

Philip Collier & Alan Dorfman

Charles William Goyen (1915 – 1983) was an American novelist, short story writer, playwright, poet, editor, and teacher. Completed while he was dying, his novel Arcadio is one of the most affecting and imaginative farewells to life ever written. Arcadio, whose voice is inimitably Goyen-esque, is a fictional character from beyond the normal walk-of-life. Half man, half woman, raised in a whorehouse and for years the veteran exhibitionist in an itinerant circus sideshow, he has escaped from the show and has been wandering in a quest for his lost family. Speaking intimately to the reader, he tells the bizarre and fantastic tale of his life. Please consider joining in a discussion of the book on Saturday, February 11, at the Stonewall Library, 1300 E. Sunrise Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale, from 11 AM to noon. All readers are welcome no reservation is required.

For additional information please contact Philip (443) 614-7135 or Alan (561) 3858260.

SAGE MEN'S Night Out

John Chandler

If you are a man who enjoys the company of other men, then we have an evening for you.

Every 4th Monday of the month, SAGE Board member, John Chandler, co-ordinates cocktails and dinner at Tropic's Restaurant in Wilton Manors. Cocktails, lively conversation, and meeting and making friends begin at 5:30 pm. At 6:30 pm the party moves to the dining room where we enjoy a terrific ‘Ten For $10 Menu.’ Any questions, please contact John at 954-933-2963 or Email him at stonyman4you@aol.com.

SAGE COMPUTER CLUB

The Computer Club meets every Wednesday at 4:00 pm in the AV Room 206 least an hour. The meetings of the SAGE Computer Club are held at The Pride Center. ## NOTES FROM THE MEN'S DROP IN Ron Catena

Wow, the first meeting of the new year brought five brand new participants! Amazingly, they all were very comfortable and animated for first-timers. And all are eager to learn about SAGE and our wonderful ongoing social activities. Our first meeting of the new year was just about "standing room only". Thank goodness for our volunteers who enjoy the task of setting up more seats as the room fills up. Our welcoming members do a great job of making everyone comfortable. Thanks, guys.

Our conversations are always lively due to the fact that our members share stories of what's going on in their lives and I must say, for an older group of men, they "get around". Many members had gone out of town for the holiday and had interesting stories to share.

Well, just when you think you know everything about the Drop-In group, we discovered two, yes two, blossoming romances among the members. How appropriate that we discover this good news around Valentine's Day when we all know that cupid is on the prowl. Best wishes, guys!

So, besides good conversation and lots of laughs, we now know that you can also meet that special someone at the Men's Drop-In. Now I ask, where else can you find all of this in one room, to say nothing of the delicious home-made goodies prepared and donated by SAGE board member Patrick Vida.

Mark your calendars. The SAGE Men's Drop-In group meets every Wednesday at 1pm at the Pride Center. Stop by and meet some of South Florida's "men about town". Down to earth, well-read, fun-loving guys. No topic is off limits, all opinions are respected, everyone is treated with dignity and respect, and, to top it off, we celebrate just about every holiday with a party in the main hall of the Pride Center with good food, entertainment, and lots of laughs. Come make some new friends. A warm welcome awaits you

SOCIAL LITES Ron Catena

Another busy month for our SAGE socialites and their friends. Our annual Valentine's Day celebration will be held on Sunday, February 12th at the lovely Cafe Primavera. Our Social Committee, working closely with Chef Giacomo, have come up with a sumptuous luncheon menu. This Zagat rated venue has always been popular with our members and guests. See the enclosed flyer for menu selections and reservation information. This year we will name a male "King of Hearts", and a female "Queen of Hearts". The panel of judges will base their selection solely on the inner beauty of the contestants. The winners will receive a complimentary lunch at the next month's Lunch and Learn, and have their photos in the next Month's SAGE Newsletter. The dining room will be decorated beautifully by our volunteer staff of decorators, headed up by the display director of Poverello's. Appropriate romantic music will be piped into the dining room while we enjoy each other's company. Reserve now since this is a capacity controlled event.

On Sunday, February 19th, at 2pm in the main hall of the Pride Center, SAGE's very own Dr. Deric Bownds will give a piano recital in memory of Dr. David Goldberger. Deric will play a selection of some of David's favorite piano pieces. This event is free and open to the entire community. Deric's past performances have been very well attended and received rave reviews. Mark your calendars and invite your family and friends.

On Sunday, February 26th, SAGE partners with PRIDE Ft Lauderdale for PRIDEFEST, which will be held on Ft. Lauderdale beach. SAGE will host the "SAGE Senior Oasis", a comfortable shaded area with seating and a bar where seniors and others can enjoy their favorite beverage, cocktail, or soft drink while enjoying the cool ocean breezes and people watch. Our location will be on solid ground opposed to on the sand so that our seniors can walk comfortably. Plus, you won't have to worry about getting sand in your Gucci's. The PRIDE committee is working on transportation and parking issues. As soon as that information is available, we will get it out to our members. Do not miss any of these fun events

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES

Michael Vita

The SAGE February Movie is "Mamma Mia". When it came out in 2008, the fanfare was enormous. You are probably aware of its musical lyrics that are etched in ones' brain, compliments of ABBA. But unlike other proclaimed blockbusters, MM delivers big time with an actual storyline, fine acting & film shots that range from the people to the scenery. (It was directed by Phyllida Lloyd, who went on to direct "The Iron Lady". With a screenplay & musical book by Catherine Johnson.)

The stellar cast is led by Meryl Streep (Donna), the proprietor of an inn on a Mediterranean island. An upcoming event has prompted her to fix the joint up: Her daughter's wedding.

Amanda Seyfried (Sophie) was apparently raised solely by mom, but is now at the age when a young lady wishes to begin a search for her father. She comes across mom's diary that refers to several males with whom Donna had affairs. When the excitement of her plan becomes too much to keep secret, Sophie tells her BFF's who fuel the enthusiasm without even knowing if the men would even show up.

Sophie is surprised when Pierce Brosnan (Sam), Colin Firth (Harry) &

Stellan Skarsgård (Bill) arrive... together. The party is rounded into shape by Donna's former singing partners, the groom & a plethora of others who easily break out in song and dance. (One of whom is Christine Baranski, who won the AARP award for Supporting Actress.)

The noteworthy thing is that the viewer is amazed at how proficient the cast is at bringing the music alive. You can validate your perception that Meryl Streep can do anything, including sing. One character (upon having a gay encounter during the celebration) reveals it coyly, then comes out to the wedding party. The climax is full of twists & turns, and a surprise result without messing with the camaraderie.

MM (the play) is in the process of its umpteenth revival (including its appearance @ Broward Center for the Performing Arts in May). Both the play and film are taking place at the right time considering effects of negative world events that show no signs of improving. One sure thing is watching MM will get those endorphins a long deserved workout.

Rated "PG-13" for some sex related comments, "Mamma Mia" will screen with subtitles on Monday, February 20 at 4pm in Room 204 of the Pride Center.

The 109-minute run time will allow us an opportunity to discuss it as we dine afterwards.

SAGE is Looking for a Few Good Men ... and WOMEN!...

To serve on our Board. At the End of March, several Board Members will be leaving as their terms expire. We want to continue our full menu of Programs, Services, Events and Activities for the Senior LGBT Communities of Broward and Palm Beach Counties. But we have long outgrown the time when we could accomplish all that we do with just a handful of people.

Now don't throw up your hands or shake your heads: If you volunteer to help on a committee, why not take the next step, and volunteer to be a Board Member. Especially so if you have any skills you've been wanting to keep from rusting: Secretarial, Computing, Graphic Design, etc. Or just plain old Common Sense. If you're interested (and it's worth it just for the inside scoop on things!), submit a brief resume to our Secretary (Ann Smith) in a sealed envelope, to the SAGE Office, by February 15th. And we will get back to you. Remember, SAGE of South Florida is an INDEPENDENT ALL VOLUNTEER organization. And, with your help, we can keep it that way. Thank you.

This Year SAGE Goes to the Beach with PRIDE

Pride Fort Lauderdale is a 40-year-old organization that produces an annual celebration and tribute to the LGBT community and its unique culture.

This year, Pride Fort Lauderdale will be on Sunday February 26th 2017 and for the first time on Fort Lauderdale Beach at 1000 Seabreeze Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale 33316. The festival will include world renowned entertainers, local & national exhibitors, food court and, of course, the world-class beaches of Fort Lauderdale.

With the goal to create a world-class Pride for our world-class City, 2017 Pride will bring our most diverse and inclusive Pride ever including a family area, sporting area, History of Pride educational area, a Sober Zone, and a new VIP area.

The new Senior Chill Zone, to be hosted by SAGE of South Florida volunteers, will be located between the event's Food Court and Stage Area. All tips and donations collected at the Senior Chill Zone will help support programs for our senior LGBTQ community. While the Senior Chill Zone (our "Oasis") will be across from where Harbor Drive veers right off of A1A-Seabreeze Boulevard, it will be necessary to head a bit north to Pride's Main Entrance.

Look for SAGE of South Florida's Senior Chill Zone at PRIDE Fort Lauderdale on Sunday, February 26th, 2017, Noon to 8:00PM!

See enclosed flyer for map and further information.
