SAGE ON THE BORDER/ALTERNATIVES CELEBRATES 8 SUCCESSFUL YEARS

Caroline Leto, Facilitator

Yes, we are starting our 9th year of Alternatives. A celebration was in order and Maggione's Little Italy Restaurant in Boca Raton was selected. Many of our members are active and traveling, but those of us who participated in the celebration displayed the bonding and intimacy this group has come to enjoy.

SAGE on the Border, or simply, Alternatives, is a SAGE sponsored discussion group that meets each Monday from 11:00am to 1:00pm at the Volen Center, 1515 W. Palmetto Park Road, in Boca Raton. Our cast of characters is comprised of very interesting people coming from all walks of life who are willing to share their experiences freely. The group's guidelines are such that one feels protected in divulging personal aspects of their lives. As there are no debates, there are no disagreements, but rather, a tolerance and respect for one's difference of opinion.

The Boca Raton SAGE group has been a wonderful experience. Not only does it provide a needed sense of community, but it always was thought-provoking and informative. I have met many fine people there, many who have become good friends.

_Ted Fisher

Tight friendships have formed and forged ahead resulting in a terrific, much need support system for many. Following the weekly meeting, we go out to lunch which also helps form a comfortability with

SAGE Health Tips

Gene Majka, ARNP

Welcome. If you have a topic, comment, or questions please send an email to sagesofl@gmail.com . Thank you.

Our Co-Ed SAGE on the Border/Alternatives Monday group in Boca Raton recently posed this question for discussion:

What is your biggest fear as we grow older?

A majority of our group stated immobility. I know this is my biggest fear of being unable to perform my daily tasks, or worse, getting stuck in bed. We live in a very mobile society and as seniors we are part of that culture. Go. Go. Go. An important way to keep us mobile is, yes, I am going to say that DREADED word, exercise. Many of us cannot exercise as strenuously as we did before, but some still can, like Joan Frimmer from our Boca group, who still actively plays tennis several times a week. So what is our alternative?

STRETCHING

Sliver Sneaker states on their website:

STRETCHING FOR SENIORS: 7 SIMPLE MOVES FOR THE NOT-SO-FLEXIBLE Posted by Aimee Welch | May 5, 2016 Retrieved from <https://www.silversneakers.com/blog/stretching-for-seniors-7-simple-moves-for-the-not-so-flexible/>

WHY ARE FLEXIBILITY/STRETCHING SO IMPORTANT?

Ultimately, flexibility is about enjoying your life. By increasing your range of motion, you'll be less prone to injury while exercising, playing sports, traveling or playing with your grandkids. You'll feel less stiff and more comfortable going about everyday activities like walking, lifting, bending and even driving your car. You could improve your posture, circulation and balance while relieving pain and stress.

Please always seek advice from your physician/nurse practitioner prior to any increase in activity.

I cannot show the types of senior stretching due to space availability but I can give you resources. Senior computer Techies, just Google search "seniors stretching" for many different sites with simple stretches and pictures to show you how to accomplish them. You can search on You Tube for many short videos to stretch along to. If you order books/videos from Amazon Prime SMILE, The Pride Center will receive a donation from your Amazon purchase.

Non-computer seniors, you can go to your nearest book/video store, such as Barnes & Noble, where there are a variety of books and DVD's for your selection.

The Pride Center has senior exercise programs Monday through Friday mornings. Check their website for times.

<http://www.pridecenterflorida.org>

So start your day with a stretch and you will roll along smoothly.

Your Health Professionals on the SAGE Board.

We Care because YOU care about your health.

Thank you to my editors Ann Smith, ARNP, Nancy Drennen, R.N. and Martin Horowitz, MD.

SAGE BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

Philip Collier & Alan Dorfman

A best seller – A Little Life by Hanya Yanagihara – has received adulatory reviews in The New Yorker, The Atlantic, The Wall Street Journal, and other serious venues. Bound by friendships first formed at a northeastern liberal arts college, four men move to New York where they think about work and creativity and success and failure. They cook for each other, compete with each other, jostle for each other's affection, and spend the next three decades gaining renown in their professions—as an architect, painter, actor, and lawyer – while also struggling with demons in their intertwined personal lives. In essence, the book is a love story about friendship and the bravery and sacrifice that true friendship and love sometimes require. A sizable tome that will be read over the next 2 months, please consider joining the SAGE Book Discussion Group on August 12, 2017 at the Stonewall Library, 1300 E. Sunrise Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale, from 11 AM to noon. All are welcome - no reservation is required. For additional information please contact Philip (443) 614-7135 or Alan (561) 385-8260

SAGE MEN'S NIGHT OUT

Lunch & Learn

NOTES FROM THE MEN'S DROP IN

Ron Catena

The long, hot summer has had no effect on the attendance at the Men's Drop-In. I'm impressed that, week after week, we continue to see new faces willing to join in on the interesting, lively, and often amusing, weekly round of conversation. I should say "new attendees" instead of "new faces". Most of our members' faces aren't that new.

We have a tradition at the Drop-In that no holiday shall go uncelebrated. We continued the tradition with last month's July 4th party. After singing patriotic songs, to music supplied by Kris Nicholson, we enjoyed a traditional meal of fried chicken, potato salad, baked beans, boneless pickles, with both cheesecake and pineapple upside-down cake for dessert. Thank you to Captain Carl and his eager crew of volunteers for all their hard work. They guarantee that a good time will be held by all.

We welcome you to come and join the fun every Wednesday at 1:00pm, Room 204 of the Pride Center. See what you're missing. You won't be disappointed.

SOCAL LITES Sal Orlando

The "Dog Days of Summer" are upon us. The weather is very warm and most of us are taking it easy and trying to stay cool. Not for us, your Social Committee. We have been busy little bees planning events for you, our members.

Our SAGE Meet-Up at Aruba was July 18. Those of you who attended had a wonderful time. The food, as always, was good and plentiful; the venue had lots of activity and fun; and, of course, the cocktails were the "icing on the cake".

This month we have Rosie's Bar and Grill on the Drive on Tuesday, August 22, from 5 to 8 PM, hosted by Allen Churchman, our treasurer, and a social committee member. Rosie's is one of Allen's favorites. He's excited to bring this special Meet-Up event, which requires no reservations, to the members. It promises to be lots of fun, especially with the campy waiters and their tee shirts with funny sayings. Don't miss it.

Next month we start off with a day at the Casino @ Dania Beach on Tuesday, September 5, 12:30 to 3:30PM. This casino is fairly new, and features over 900 Las Vegas style slot machines, table card rooms, and multiple dining options. As part of the SAGE group you will be given $10.00 free play and a $5.00 voucher towards food. To attend, you must call the office no later than September 1st. We must provide the casino with the names of those attending. Carpooling will be available at the Pride Center. Make sure you mention that you would like to car pool when you make your reservation.

After a long absence, we return to Tropical Acres on Sunday, September 24 from 12 to 4PM, for SAGE's 23rd Anniversary Luncheon. Tropical Acres serves great food, and is one of the oldest family owned restaurants in South Florida. Cocktails will be served at 12 Noon, followed by a delicious meal with your choice of one of three entrees. Mark your calendar for this special event.

Watch for news of our upcoming events. Some venues, which are still in the planning stages, are back by popular demand and promise to be fabulous, so keep reading your Social Lites column. And for ongoing activities, consult the SAGE calendar for meeting times and places.

Ciao for now.

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES

Michael Vita

Long before Harvey Fierstein won the Tony Award for Best Book of a Musical for "La Cage aux Folles" (1984), he won the Tony Award for Best Actor in a Musical for playing Edna Turnblad in "Hairspray" (2003), was inducted into the American Theater Hall of Fame in 2007, wrote the book for the Tony Award-winning "Kinky Boots" (2013), and won the Tony Award for Best Actor in a Play for his own play "Torch Song Trilogy" (1983).

Torch Song Trilogy (1988) is a comedy-drama film adapted by Harvey Fierstein from his play of the same title. An urban comedy-drama spanning nine years in the life of a gay man in New York, centering around the loves in his life, his stormy relationship with his mother, and his hopes of adopting a son.

The film was directed by Paul Bogart and stars Harvey Fierstein as Arnold, Anne Bancroft as Ma Beckoff, Matthew Broderick as Alan, Brian Kerwin as Ed, and Eddie Castrodad as David.

Harvey Fierstein re-creates his role as the unsinkable Arnold Beckoff in a very personal story that is both funny and poignant. "Torch Song Trilogy" chronicles a New Yorker's search for love, respect and tradition in a world that seems not especially made for him.

From Arnold's hilarious steps toward domestic bliss with a reluctant school teacher, to his first truly promising love affair with a young fashion model, Arnold's greatest challenge remains his complicated relationship with his mother. But, armed with a keenly developed sense of humor and oftentimes piercing wit, Arnold continues to test the commonly accepted terms of endearment--and endurance--in a universally affecting story which confirms that happiness is well worth carrying a torch for.

Fierstein specifically created the role of Bertha Venation to highlight the work of female impersonator Charles Pierce (July 14, 1926 – May 31, 1999), one of the 20th century's foremost female impersonators, who was particularly noted for his impersonation of Bette Davis.

Torch Song Trilogy, rated "R", will screen on Monday, August 21st at 4pm, Room 204 of the Pride Center. The 120-minute running time will allow us an opportunity to discuss it as we dine afterwards.

LEARN ABOUT THE STONEWALL MUSEUM & ARCHIVES

Emery Grant, the Director of Programs and Education of the Stonewall Museum & Archives, will be the speaker at the SAGE Lunch & Learn Program on August 5th, 2017. Celebrating more than 40 years, the Stonewall National Museum & Archives (SNMA) promotes understanding through preserving and sharing the proud culture of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people, and their significant role in society. SAGE is also an advocate for the concerns and needs of the senior community at large, providing referral information on community resources and promoting inter-generational communication in the GLBT community. SAGE was founded in 1994 as a Florida "not for profit." Corporation. (Federal Tax-Exempt status of 501(c)3 allowing tax-deductible donations.)

Frank Piasecki co-facilitates with me year-round, but when Ann and I take our two-month holiday in the summer, Jean Arthurton and Frank take over. Terry Williams fills in for Frank in his absence. It is a smooth-running team effort that keeps Alternatives running as well as it has all these years.

Now we look forward to entering our 9th year and anticipate that it will sustain for as long as it is needed.

IN MEMORIAM

BRUCE S. TODRES was born January 11, 1937 in New York City. He was, according to his large and diverse family, "a proud supporter of "Gay Rights" with an abiding "commitment to be true to what [he] believed in." Indeed, Bruce, and his partner of 57 years, the late Larry McNear, were among our Founding and Original SAGE Members from 1994. Years later, he was instrumental in the original negotiations with Boca's Volen Center to establish SAGE On the Border/Alternatives as one of our most successful programs.

He was a principled gentleman, who lived his life according to those beliefs. According to his family, he chose "Robert to be his son", who (with his partner, Nate) was devoted to Bruce until he passed on November 28, 2016 in Boynton Beach.

Our condolences go to his sibling, his family of many cousins, and nieces and nephews. To his many SAGE friends. To Robert and Nate. Rest in peace, Bruce. Thank you for your years of guidance and support.
