May 2018

THANK YOU

PATRICK S. VIDA, President, SAGE of South Florida

On behalf of SAGE of South Florida, I'd like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the thoughtfulness of all those donors listed below who contributed to the economic well being of our organization during the past year. We appreciate your generosity. Your financial support of SAGE allows us to continue our mission of enriching the lives of GLBTQ seniors in Broward and Palm Beach Counties. Apart from monetary support, how else can you, as a SAGE member, heed your moral obligation to be charitable? There are many ways. By donating your time and energy to support your association. By attending and participating in SAGE activities. By showing kindness and consideration to your fellow SAGE members. By spreading the word to neighbors and friends and encouraging them to attend SAGE community events.

To all who contributed to SAGE last year, please accept our gratitude. And, thank you so much for your beneficence.

SAGE MISSION STATEMENT SAGE of South Florida is a non-profit organization for Senior Action in a Gay Environment to enrich the lives of the GLBT senior community through membership inclusive of age, gender, race, nationality, and religion. We believe this can be accomplished by sponsoring social alternatives, by providing personal interaction, offering educational opportunities to deal with the special needs of aging, and by promoting contact with the isolated and home-bound persons of our community. SAGE is also an advocate for the concerns and needs of the senior community at large, providing referral information on community resources and promoting inter-generational communication in the GLBT community. SAGE was founded in 1994 as a Florida "not for profit" corporation (Federal Tax-Exempt Status of 501 (c) 3, allowing tax-deductible donations).

SAGE BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

Philip Collier & Alan Dorfman

For forty years the humorist David Sedaris kept diaries in which he recorded everything that captured his attention - overheard comments, salacious gossip, soap opera plot twists, secrets confided by total strangers. These observations provided the source for his finest work and through them he honed his cunning, surprising sentences. In the first of two volumes – Theft by Finding: Diaries (1977-2002) – Sedaris now shares his private writings to tell the story of a life that is extraordinary in so many ways – the drug addiction, the eccentric family, the crazy jobs, the fame, the globetrotting. The diaries as presented tend to be on the true-ish side, but comic writers have always received a special dispensation when it comes to accuracy. Please consider joining in discussion with the SAGE Book Group on Saturday, May 12, 2018 at the Stonewall Library, 1300 E. Sunrise Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale, from 11 AM to noon. All are welcome - no reservation is required. For more information, please contact Philip (443) 614-7135.

NOTES FROM THE MEN'S DROP-IN

Carl Barton

The Men's Drop-In Group meets every Wednesday at 1pm at The Pride Center, Room 204.

News of upcoming events and announcements are made by the moderator at the beginning of the meeting. Members are allowed to make announcements regarding events which may be of interest to the community. Any new members or guests are introduced. All are then given the opportunity, if they choose, to say a few words about special events in their daily lives, personal, concerns, or whatever else is on their minds. During one of the May meetings, there may be a special appearance by a mystery guest familiar to regular members. Let me know your guess. Thanks to Jefy Gaines for his help co-hosting, thanks to President Patrick S. Vida for his weekly contribution of homemade baked goodies, and thanks to the volunteers who set up the room and provide assistance during special events. The last five minutes of every meeting always has a special surprise. Come and enjoy!

SOCIAL LITES Sal Orlando

I trust everyone had a wonderful holiday. The weather is getting warmer. Not looking forward to our hot, sticky summer. Oh well, the price we have to pay to have eight months of paradise. Boy, did we have a busy month in April. First Cafe Vico on the 10th was fabulous. Everyone enjoyed the cocktails and conversation hour at their big luxurious bar. Then dinner was superb. Being Italian and growing up in a family of good cooks, I can honestly say that the food was really fabulous. No complaints so far. Then we had the "Feel Good" Songs performance by Michael Vita with Hal Roland on the 15th at The Pride Center. What a turn out! Can Michael belt out those songs! What a melodious voice! Looking forward to his next concert. Finally, on the 21st, our Annual SAGE Picnic. The food was terrific, prepared by none other than Chef Giacomo, from Cafe Prima Vera, who never disappoints us.

This month we have Ferdos Grill on Saturday, May 19th at 5:30 PM for wine and conversation, followed by dinner at 6 PM. I love this venue. The Middle Eastern flavor, together with the great service, and especially my favorite server, Jennifer, promises to be an evening to remember. Don't miss this one.

Reminder, there is still time to book your SAGE December 3rd Cruise. For more info, contact me at 954 563-3448 or email sorlan8@aol.com.

As always, for ongoing activities, consult your SAGE Calendar for meeting times and places.

Ciao for now.

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES

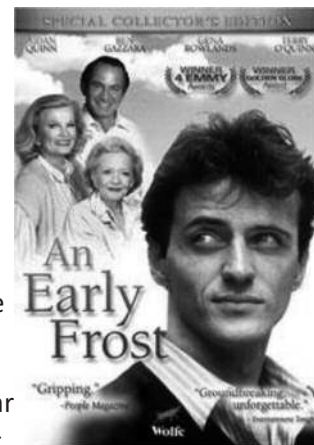

Michael Vita

The SAGE May movie is An Early Frost, the first production of any kind which dealt with AIDS. In addition to the new subject matter, it was awarded 4 Emmys (14 nominations). Another asset was the top-notch cast. When the film premiered in 1985, it aired at the same time as Monday Night Football when the former had more viewers than the latter, which was no small feat.

Michael Pierson (played by Aidan Quinn, "Benny & Joon", "Legends of the Fall") has the life that anyone would want: A condo on Chicago's Gold Coast; he is moving up the ladder at his law firm; and is the envy of his family living out of town. He decides to visit the folks, who are Katherine (Gena Rowlands, who received Best Actress Oscar nominations for "A Woman Under the Influence" & "Gloria") & Nick (Ben Gazzara, "Run for Your Life" "Buffalo 66"). During his stay, Michael fails to reveal an important fact about himself to them. Peter (Michael's partner, played by DW Moffett) expresses his disenchantment with this omission. Meanwhile, Michael keeps coughing and sweats when lying in bed. He believes antibiotics will wipe out the pneumonia he was told he had. When the symptoms persist, tests are done, and he is told he has an immune deficiency disease. Michael asks, and is told, it is AIDS. The evolution of the characters is apparent throughout the rest of the movie where human emotions encounter the realities of the disease (what little was known at the time). During one of Michael's hospital stays, a fellow patient Victor (John Glover) gives him a purpose to keep on going. Another noteworthy scene involves Michael & Nick when their tenuous relationship comes to a head. According to the producers, several developments occurred during the filming. The AIDS virus was able to be separated and studied for research, and Rock Hudson's announcement that he had the disease added to the human element which may have contributed to the high viewership. No doubt that the production made the mainstream population aware of the plight that a growing number of individuals was experiencing.

An Early Frost is unrated & doesn't contain any objectionable material. It will screen with subtitles on Monday, May 21st at 4pm in Room 204 of The Pride Center. The 97-minute running time will allow viewers the opportunity to discuss the proceedings as we dine afterwards.

SAGE Health Tips

Gene Majka, ARNP

Welcome. If you have a topic, comment or questions, please send an email to sagesofl@gmail.com.

Blood Pressure

High blood pressure is sometimes called “the silent killer,” because you do not feel it being high unless it is dangerously high. It is very common in older people and a major health problem. If high blood pressure isn’t controlled with lifestyle changes and medicine, it can lead to stroke, heart disease, eye problems, kidney failure, and other health problems. High blood pressure can also cause shortness of breath during light physical activity or exercise.

Blood pressure is the force of blood pushing against the walls of arteries. When a health practitioner measures your blood pressure, the results are given in two numbers. The first number (top or listed first), called systolic blood pressure, is the pressure caused by your heart contracting and pushing out blood. The second number (bottom or next number), is called diastolic blood pressure, this is the pressure when your heart relaxes and fills with blood. Your blood pressure reading is usually given as the systolic blood pressure number over the diastolic blood pressure number, such as 138 (systolic)/72 (diastolic).

If the first number is higher than 140 this is called isolated systolic hypertension. This is the most common senior problem caused by age-related stiffening of the major arteries. Isolated systolic hypertension is treated the same way as regular high blood pressure but may require more than one type of blood pressure medication. If your doctor determines that your systolic pressure is above a normal level for your age, ask how you can lower it.

If your blood pressure is lower than 90/60, you have low blood pressure or hypotension. You may feel light-headed, weak, dizzy, or even faint. Low blood pressure can be caused by not drinking enough liquids (dehydration), blood loss, some medical conditions, or too much medication.

You should check your blood pressure periodically. You can purchase a blood pressure machine at your nearest drug store or online. The blood pressure machines at Publix and major drug stores are good but they may have a reading a little higher than your own machine. Record your blood pressure at different times of the day and bring your results to your next health practitioner visit.

The good news is that blood pressure can be controlled in most people. There are many lifestyle changes you can make to lower your risk of high blood pressure such as: Maintaining a healthy weight; following a healthy diet; regular exercise; reducing salt intake; not smoking; alcohol in moderation; managing stress; and getting a good night’s sleep.

If you do take blood pressure medication, please take it on time every day. Monitor your blood pressure and see your health practitioner periodically. Enjoy life and keep cool.

Your Health Professionals from the SAGE Board.

We Care because YOU care about your health.

Please always seek advice from your physician/nurse practitioner.

Thank you to my editors Ann Smith Nurse Practitioner, Nancy Drennen, R.N. and Dr. Martin Horowitz, M.D.

SAGE/Pride Film Series

Carl M. Galli, President Emeritus

The past two years have seen a resurgence in good, Queer cinema. From the record-breaking 2016 Moonlight (filmed in Miami, on an independent budget, going on to win “Best Picture” against “La La Land”) to 2017’s Call Me by Your Name (nominated for four Academy Awards -and winner of a host of other awards). But these are only two of a sudden multitude of relevant LGBT films which speak to us. If not in theme and plot, then in casting and writing, directing and producing. The Pride Center realized this when last year our SAGE was asked to host Moonlight, just two days after its surprise win. We screened it on Coffee and Conversation Tuesday -and our experiment proved wildly successful. With 150 people from all over the Community enjoying the film.

With 2017 being such a banner year for our type of movies, we decided to try it again: At The Pride Center, our SAGE has shown God’s Own Country (a Sundance Winner in Directing) and Call Me by Your Name (Oscar winner for James Ivory’s Screenplay). We have decided to continue with these types of screenings on a monthly basis. On the second Tuesday of the month, at 1:15pm, in The Pride Center Main Hall. Open to the Community; free for all. This month, we will be showing the Best Picture of 2017: The Shape of Water (Guillermo del Toro’s adult fantasy.) A picture with a major (not token) gay role (for Oscar-nominated Richard Jenkins), and a story about true love and humanity. But, like all fairy tales, it’s not all sugar-and-spice: There are some intensely violent scenes and some sexual ones. So, come with your grown-up attitudes. And open minds.

This new film series in no way replaces our regular SAGE third-Monday screenings (“See You at the Movies”) which will continue to concentrate on classic LGBT films. Together, the two screenings should complement one another nicely. We thank The Pride Center and its staff for this opportunity. And for the use of their Motion Picture Licensing Corporation Universal License (to which we have contributed) to make this possible.

Look for the monthly flyers. And come enjoy. And be amazed at what is out there for us.

Winner of multiple Awards, including an Oscar® for Best Director: Guillermo Del Toro

Starring: Sally Hawkins, Michael Shannon, Richard Jenkins, Octavia Spencer, Doug Jones... For those few cinema scholars who speak of some motion pictures as “films,” and others as “movies,” Guillermo del Toro’s glorious “The Shape of Water” refuses to go tidily into either box. A ravishing, eccentric auteur’s imagining, spilling artistry, empathy and sensuality from every open pore, it also offers more straight-up movie for your money than just about any Hollywood studio offering this year. This decidedly adult fairytale, about a forlorn, mute cleaning lady and the uncanny merman who save each other’s lives in very different ways, careers wildly from mad-scientist B-movie to heart-thumping Cold War noir to ecstatic, wings-on-heels musical, keeping an unexpectedly classical love story afloat with every dizzy genre turn. Lit from within by a heart-clutching silent star turn from Sally Hawkins, lent dialogue by one of Alexandre Desplat’s most abundantly swirling scores, this is incontestably del Toro’s most rewarding, richly realized film — or movie, for that matter — since 2006’s “Pan’s Labyrinth.” Variety: Guy Lodge
