SAGE MISSION STATEMENT SAGE of South Florida is a non-profit organization for Senior Action in a Gay Environment to enrich the lives of the GLBT senior community through membership inclusive of age, gender, race, nationality, and religion. We believe this can be accomplished by sponsoring social alternatives, by providing personal interaction, offering educational opportunities to deal with the special needs of aging, and by promoting contact with the isolated and home-bound persons of our community. SAGE is also an advocate for the concerns and needs of the senior community at large, providing referral information on community resources and promoting inter-generational communication in the GLBT community. SAGE was founded in 1994 as a Florida "not for profit" corporation (Federal Tax-Exempt Status of 501 (c) 3, allowing tax-deductible donations).

SAGE BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

Philip Collier

John Boyne's epic novel – The Heart's Invisible Furies – covers the life of a gay Irishman, Cyril Avery, in the latter half of the twentieth century from the time of his birth and adoption to his later decline and eventual death in the present day. With the skill of a craftsman, Boyne shifts his story from a 1940s homophobic Ireland dominated by the Catholic Church and staunchly conservative lawmakers to a liberal Amsterdam of sex trafficking and liberation, to a New York City overwhelmed by the AIDS epidemic and then back again to a now-more-tolerant Ireland. Dickensian in scope, the story has all the trappings of a nineteenth century novel with its elaborate plot points, its twists and turns of fate and coincidence, and its ribald characterizations.

Please consider joining the SAGE Book Group in a discussion on Saturday, January 12th, 2019, at the Stonewall Library, 1300 E. Sunrise Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale from 11am to 12 Noon. All are welcome - no reservation is required.

NOTES FROM THE MEN'S DROP-IN

Carl Barton

The SAGE Men's Drop-In group meets every Wednesday from 1pm- 3pm at The Pride Center, Room 204. All are welcome to stop by and enjoy the fun.

Well, the last of the snowbirds have returned for the "season", and attendance has been increasing. We had a very special "Holiday Drop-In" party on December 26th which featured a delicious lunch prepared by Chef Giacomo of Café Primavera. Everyone had a festive time.

We seem to be attracting new members every week who join right in our lively and informative discussions. Guests are always welcomed and introduced. At Drop-In, no one holds back from expressing their thoughts and opinions about current local and national events, movies and cultural events, and life in South Florida.

Thanks to my co-host, Jefy Gaines, for his assistance. He has just about completed his training. Thanks to President Patrick S. Vida for his contribution of home-baked goodies. We always have a special surprise in our last 10 minutes of every meeting. Come and enjoy. And Happy New Year to you all!

SOCIAL LITES Sal Orlando

Another year has come and gone. Boy, the older you get, the quicker they pass you by. Hope everyone is having a wonderful holiday season. I sure am. I enjoyed the SAGE Cruise which took place December 3rd to the 8th. Our group had a great time, the food was delicious, the shows were very entertaining, and the ship staff very helpful. Of course, lots of eating, drinking and some gambling. Needed a few days to recuperate after getting home. On the 16th, we had our Annual Holiday Party once again at The Embassy Suites on 17th Street Causeway. It was decorated so beautifully, the staff was accommodating, the meal scrumptious, and the cocktail hour was very nice. Everybody got to greet, mingle, and catch up. A definite venue for future events.

This month SAGE goes to The Miller Ale House for a Meet-Up on Tuesday, January 8th at 5pm for cocktails and conversation at the bar at Happy Hour prices, then dinner at 6pm with early menu pricing. Then on Sunday, January 20th, at 1pm SAGE holds its Annual Milestone Birthday Party at The Pride Center, to honor those who turned 75, 80, 85, 90 (or more) years of age in 2018. This is always a festive event. Don't miss it.

Save the Date: Sunday, February 10th, SAGE Valentine's Day Dinner.

Note: For those of you who reserve at the last minute, we will no longer accept payment at the door. Reservations together with payment by credit card or cash will be accepted either by phone or in person at the SAGE office.

As always, for ongoing activities, consult your SAGE Calendar for meeting times and places.

Happy, Healthy New Year to all!

Ciao for now.

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES

Michael Vita

The SAGE January movie is Lost Horizon. When it came out in 1937, the depression was in the rear-view mirror, but there were ominous signals ahead, which resulted in World War II. Audiences during this time gravitated to motion pictures that had uplifting themes. This movie was an example of what results from a novel (by the same name) that was full of intrigue, Hollywood glitz & a star studded cast.

Although the subject matter is fictional, the film accurately portrays what was happening in China during the 1930's with invasions and rapid social changes. The opening caption refers to "white people" involved in a massive relocation effort. Robert Conway (portrayed by British actor, Ronald Colman) is a diplomat who aspires to be a major political figure & this mission would get him the publicity. As the plane is departing for a safer destination, a variety of individuals of different backgrounds hurriedly embark, which provides for a memorable experience.

After many hours in flight, the passengers become weary and demand an explanation. These inquiries were greeted with the pilot wielding a pistol at them. Miraculously, they remain calm, until they sense that the plane is taking a hard landing on top of a mountain. What the party discovers is that the hijacking was planned, but the pilot's heart attack & subsequent crash were not anticipated.

Conrad & the others are greeted by a group who convinces them to proceed thru the snowdrifts to their settlement. They hike down a valley to Shangri-La, whose climate is just like Florida's. The folks whom they encounter when entering this place are just as affable as the rescuers. The residents possess the secret to living a long, stress-free life. After receiving lavish treatment, the visitors generally have a positive reaction towards this fantasy land. One individual tries to spread doubt about how genuine this place really is. Conrad requests a meeting with their leader, The High Lama (Sam Jaffe), who claims to be well over 100 years old.

He is enchanted with this sage and conveys this to his fellow refugees. At this point, some become homesick and utter complaints, such as not having radio reception. Conrad finds their antipathy towards Shangri-La to be quite off-putting. When he becomes romantically involved with a native-born damsel (Jane Wyatt), Conrad's views about this land are cemented.

Revolution on Resolutions

Happy New Year. It is that time where you Resolutions. Whoever started this ridiculous resolutions can be something to think about resolution, DON'T. We all agree that we can when you want to, not to society demands. to Weight Watchers again. I just got tired and I just was not feeling comfortable. I was but it was not a New Year's Resolution.

are pressured into adopting New Year's trend should be resolute to silence. Yes, but if you are not firmly committed to the change bad habits to good habits but do it On January 11, 2018 I decided to go back getting out of breath putting my socks on and still am on the plan and feeling better

Seniors are more vulnerable to everyday events. There are a few ideas to think about when changing your life for the better. Yes, it's a diet if you're adding a fruit, vegetable, whole grains, fish, and low-fat dairy products. You do not have to be religious about this but just take one selection and see how it works. A multivitamin will help your nutritional needs. How about a short walk a few times a week, this is not a marathon. A very important need of seniors is to use care and guard against falls (see Health Tips, The SAGE newsletter, February 2018 in our SAGE Archives site). Easy-peasy, give your brain a workout - do crosswords, Sudoku, take a free senior course at a nearby college. I never did crosswords but since discovering the New York Times mini crosswords, I am now addicted, but it's a good addiction. We need more sleep. Go on Google and find ways to make you sleep longer and better without pills. If you get lonely or depressed, reach out to talk to a friend or a counselor at a community center. We all worked hard all our lives, so let's make our retirement time enjoyable and fun and not just constantly going to doctor's offices.

Here are some amusing New Year's resolutions:

Buy a plant and, this time, let it live. Stop picking your nose when you think no one is looking. Stop blaming other people for your own flatulence. I will not ring the flight attendant button on airplanes just to get his/her phone number. Help all my friends gain ten pounds so I look skinnier. I will read more by putting the subtitles on my TV. The average person has sex 89 times a year: December 31st - today is going to be a great day. My resolution is to be more optimistic by keeping my cup half-full - with rum, vodka, or whiskey.

Have a fun, safe and enjoyable 2019 (BTW [By the way] I lost 38 pounds).

The rest of the film exhibits conflicts that are typical of productions from the same era. The visitors impose their wills, point & counterpoint, where one side eventually prevails, which leads to an exciting conclusion.

40 years have elapsed since the writer first (and last) saw the film. Being a favorite of my father's, it was viewed with him in a tiny cinema in Oakland Park that showed old movies. The critical acclaim, combined with January being the month of new beginnings will hopefully put the viewer in the right frame of mind.

"Lost Horizon" is unrated & is void of anything that can be considered as objectionable. It will screen with subtitles on Monday, January 21st at 4pm in Room 204 of The Pride Center. The 132 minutes of running time will allow viewers the opportunity to discuss the proceedings as we dine afterwards.

BROADWAY CARES/EQUITY FIGHTS AIDS DISPLAY at STONEWALL NATIONAL MUSEUM

Stonewall National Museum – Wilton Manors, located at 2157 Wilton Drive, Wilton Manors, is currently exhibiting items describing the history of "Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS" including a framed program of the first fundraiser, A modest Vaudeville, which was produced and performed by the touring company of "42nd Street," in San Francisco (1985). The exhibit includes framed letters from the "42nd Street" company to Actors' Equity Association (1988); Actors' Equity's response; a notice in the BC/EFA's program from then-president of Actors' Equity, Ms. Colleen Dewhurst and a letter of appreciation from Tom Viola, Executive Director of "Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS." (In 2018 BC/EFA provided $231,000 in grants to 23 agencies in Florida, including three in Wilton Manors: Latinos Salud; Pet Project for Pets, and Poverello Center.) Archival items are on loan from SAGE of South Florida Board Member, Michael Vita, and are on display until January 20, 2019.

About Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS

Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS is one of the nation's leading industry-based HIV/AIDS fundraising and grant-making organizations. They fund the social service work of The Actors Fund and award grants to AIDS service organizations nationwide.
