SAGE of South Florida's 28th Anniversary

When SAGE turned 28, it was a very good year. It was a very good year to be with your old friends. To make some new ones, too. So many things to do. A time to celebrate, when SAGE turned 28.

During the past year, the world has re-opened and SAGE of South Florida has resumed offering our full complement of events. We held both our Milestone Birthday Celebration and Annual Meeting live and in person. With the re-opening of the Pride Center, The Round Table and Men's Drop-In groups are again meeting in person. The monthly SAGE/Prime Gentlemen Movie at the Pride Center has restarted. The Book Discussion Group has returned to meeting at the Stonewall Library.

We've continued our outreach and support of other community groups by making donations to such organizations as the Active Aging Expo, Covenant House, the South Florida Gay News, and the Stonewall Library and Museum. We've continued our mutual collaborations with Fort Lauderdale Prime Gentlemen. We've awarded two recipients with SAGE of South Florida Carl M. Galli "Leaders of Tomorrow" Scholarships. And, we've unveiled an updated logo designed by our new Digital Communications Coordinator, Austin Rahn.

Join us for dinner on Sunday, September 25th at the elegant Anthony's Clam House & Grill when we will acknowledge the accomplishments of the past year. See the enclosed flyer for details and the reservation form. Help us celebrate 28 years of service to the community!

As SAGE of South Florida begins its 29th year dedicated to serving LGBTQ+ older adults, the Board of Directors would like to officially and genuinely express their gratitude to both our valued members and to SageUSA in New York City for all their support through the years. We look forward to another 29 years of service and salute SageUSA for advocating for our community since 1978.

REMINDER: MEMBERSHIP DUES REINSTATED

Beginning September 1, 2022, the payment of dues will be required to renew your SAGE membership. You will receive a Notice prior to your upcoming individual renewal month. Membership dues had been suspended for the past two years when the COVID pandemic prevented us from presenting our full calendar of social and educational activities. Despite inflation, the cost remains at pre-COVID prices!

SAGE MISSION STATEMENT: SAGE of South Florida (Senior Action in a Gay Environment)) is a non-profit organization which seeks to enrich the lives of the GLBT senior community through membership inclusive of age, gender, race, nationality, and religion. We believe this can be accomplished by sponsoring social alternatives, by providing personal interaction, by offering educational opportunities to deal with the special needs of aging, and by promoting contact with the isolated and home-bound persons of our community. SAGE was founded in 1994 as a Florida "not for profit" corporation (Federal Tax-Exempt Status of 501 (c) 3, allowing tax-deductible donations.

SAGE EDITORIAL POLICY : SAGE welcomes contributors to the newsletter. An author may request their entry be "anonymous". However, the submission, as received by SAGE, must be accompanied by the full name and address of the author. Items will be published at our discretion, and such publication does not constitute endorsement by SAGE of South Florida. If we feel that we cannot publish a submission anonymously, we will contact the author. We reserve the right to edit articles for length, clarity, or standards of decency. We do not accept paid ads in the newsletter.

THE ROUND TABLE

Paul McNamara

This Co-Ed group, sponsored jointly with The Fort Lauderdale Prime Gentlemen, is meeting live in Room 206 of the Pride Center and simultaneously online using the Zoom platform to discuss contemporary topics and ideas from 2:30-3:30pm on the second and fourth Monday of each month. Sessions have a moderator who presents a brief background on the discussion topic chosen for the session.

The topic scheduled for September 12th is Outsmarting Online Scammers presented by Allen Blaich: Online scamming results in over $100 billion a year in losses involving over 50 million victims in the US alone. Allen will identify some of the more common types of on-line scams, with an emphasis on online dating scams. He will provide useful tips on how to avoid becoming the prey of online scammers. The topic scheduled for September 26th is The MEER Project presented by Paul McNamara: As our climate emergency intensifies, MEER (Mirrors for Earth's Energy Rebalancing) aims to directly tackle the most imminent threat, Earth's rising temperatures. By using solar reflectors, MEER proposes to redirect portions of sunlight back into space before it has a chance to heat our planet. The discussion will focus on details of MEER's Solar Radiation Management Program.

Please email Ed Slough at WILDHYBRID@aol.com if you would like to be on the mailing list to receive notice of upcoming topics and background material for the sessions.

SAGE ON THE BORDER/ ALTERNATIVES (SOBA)

Frank Piasecki & Jean Arthurton

This Co-Ed discussion group meets every Monday at 11:00am at the Volen Center, 1515 W. Palmetto Park Road, Boca Raton, subject to COVID safety precautions and requirements. Those unable to attend in person can participate remotely via the Zoom video conferencing platform. If you don't have access to video-conferencing devices, you can participate by calling in to the meeting on your cell phone. Watch your email for the weekly eblast announcement. Everyone is welcome.

NOTES FROM THE MEN'S DROP-IN

Carl Barton & Jefy Gaines

SAGE/Prime Gentlemen Men's Drop-In meets every Wednesday, 1:00pm to 2:00pm, and it's a hybrid meeting: In person at the Pride Center, Wilton Manors and also via Zoom. We follow CDC and WHO guidelines regarding in-person meetings.

It's September! I've heard that life is like a roll of toilet paper – the older it is, the faster it goes. We are joined by Prime Gentlemen and friends locally and from around the country and around the world via Zoom. All are welcome. We share. We kibbutz. We schmooze. We start at 1:00pm, first with announcements and then we share whatever is on our minds – activities, family stories, movies, and current events. Captain Carl and I, Jefy, are your hosts. It's all in fun and sometimes it does get serious. At about 2pm we close with a couple of jokes. Anyone can contribute a joke or four. SAGE of South Florida President Patrick brings his fabulous home-made sweet treats to share. Full disclosure: Sometimes the jokes are not that funny and audience moaning is acceptable since it's always good-hearted fun and we give our jokesters an "A" for effort. Any questions can be emailed to Jefy at jefgain@aol.com, Write "SAGE of South Florida" in the subject line. Come join us!

SAGE NIGHT OUT

Ed Slough

On Tuesday, September 27th, SAGE is having an informal dinner at Tropics Grille, 2000 Wilton Drive, Wilton Manors. Drinks and cocktails will be from 5:30PM to 6:30PM, with "Happy Hour" prices at the bar, and dinner at 6:30PM. Tropics has offered SAGE all dinners at half-price (no longer 2 for 1) to make the evening simpler for you. This is an event for friends to get together and celebrate the ability to socialize in person once again. It should be a good time for all. Please email me to let me know if you plan to attend so I can give Tropics a heads-up. My email is: wildhybrid@aol.com. Thanks!

SOCIAL LITES

Sal Orlando

Still counting down to the end of summer. Three more weeks, hooray! Soon after, the weather starts to cool and the best part, humidity starts dropping.

This past month we had a fantastic time at a fantastic new venue The 5th Element Indian Grill on the 23rd. The place is so nice and accommodating, the service wonderful, and the food exotic and delicious. They make SAGE feel so special. What a great venue!

This month, for SAGE's 28th Anniversary Gala on Sunday, September 25th, we go for the very first time to Anthony's Clam Bar and Grill, on Commercial Boulevard, a fabulous Italian Restaurant my husband and I have frequented many, many, times. Cocktails and mingling at 12:30 PM followed by a meal you won't soon forget. The Cash Bar includes $10 bottomless Mimosas and Bloody Marys. You'll never forgive yourself if you miss this one.

Save the Date: Next month, by popular demand, we return to The Ambry for Oktoberfest on Thursday, October 20th, for cocktails and conversation at 5:30 PM, followed by dinner at 6 PM.

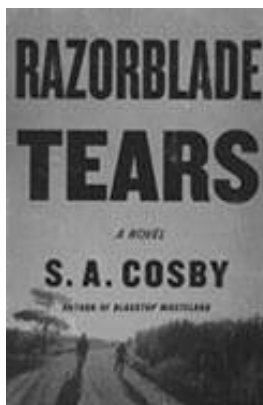

As you all know, member pricing for our events is partially subsidized by SAGE and will continue to do so. But, in lieu of the current out-of-control inflation, venues are forced to raise their prices considerably, some as much as 1/3 more. Therefore, beginning with our Anniversary Celebration next month, member pricing will go up for our events to reflect such changes. As always, it's not fair to our members, that non-members should be partially subsidized also. Therefore, non-member pricing will reflect the total cost paid to the venue by SAGE, plus entertainment, if any, for each event.

Please Note: There is a reason for SAGE to have a reservation cutoff date and time for each event. Therefore, no reservations will be accepted after such time.

As always, watch for news about upcoming events, read your Social Lites Column, and for ongoing activities, consult your SAGE Calendar for meeting times and places.

Ciao for now!

SAGE BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

Fast on its feet, by turns lethal and tender, the Book Club's September selection – Razorblade Tears, by S.A. Cosby – takes place in small-town Virginia, though it could be the backwoods of a great many places. Ike Randolph and Buddy Lee Jenkins, both ex-cons haunted by their pasts, wouldn't ordinarily mix, largely because Ike is Black and Buddy Lee is White and a casual racist. But the two men are tragically linked. Their sons were married to each other, and they were murdered together, shot in their faces outside a fancy Richmond wine store on their anniversary. The dads are both homophobes, but they also loved their sons, so when the police investigation quickly stalls, Ike and Buddy Lee decide to crack a few skulls on their own. Cosby gives us both the charge of once-bad men getting back in touch with their wild sides and the sad reluctance of relatively straight-and-narrow lives turning to vengeance. These old-timers have done bad, bad things, and they've done the time to prove it. Now they're ready to do those things again in the name of a thorny father-son love that neither man is quite comfortable with feeling. A crime fiction novel that debuted at number 10 on the New York Times best-seller list; please consider joining the SAGE Book Club in discussion on Saturday, September 10, 2022 at the Stonewall Library, 1300 E. Sunrise Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale from 11 AM to 12 noon – no reservation is required.

SAGE CO-ED DROP-IN

Michael Gagne & Kathy Macchio

Ladies of SAGE, may we have your ATTENTION PLEASE! Come to the Co-Ed Drop-In. Kathy and Michael are your hosts, every Thursday at 3:00pm. Join the fun on Zoom! It's all user-generated content – Participants bring topics, stories, and concerns to share or discuss. Check us out. Schmooze, kibitz, see some of your old friends and make some new ones. Check your emails from SAGE for the weekly announcement and link to the meeting. All (including men) are welcome!

Friendly Visitor Program

We refuse to be invisible

SAGE USA is collaborating with Sunshine Cathedral to establish a Friendly visitor program for LGBTQ+ older adults. The program links a volunteer with an LGBTQ+ older adult who would benefit from additional meaningful connections in their lives. The volunteer visits the participant weekly for 1-2 hours and speaks to the participant by phone between visits. If you or someone you know is interested in volunteering, participating, or seeking more information, contact Mitchell Zahn, Program Coordinator, at 646.568.9354 or by email at mzahn@sageusa.org.

FRIENDLY SUPPORT PROGRAM

We'd like to think we are not merely fair-weather friends, but people who really care about our SAGE family. If you know of any SAGE member who is sick, in the hospital, or would appreciate a friendly call or a note of cheer, please contact:

Michael Vita – 786.586.4286

Lunch and Learn is held the first Saturday of the month, 12:30pm, at the Herb Skolnick Community Center. RESERVATIONS ARE REQUIRED. Please see the enclosed flyer for more information.

SAGE Health Tips

Gene Majka, APRN

Welcome. If you have a topic, comment or questions, please send an email to sagesofl@gmail.com.

OA, ADL, OTC, & Rx Part 2 Arthritis Medications

There are many medications to relieve arthritis pain but keep in mind that no medication is completely free from side effects, including OTC's (over-the-counter medications). Arthritis pain can have a negative effect on your mood. If you are constantly hurting you can feel discouraged and this could lead to depression. The pain could increase and be more difficult to relieve. You may fall into overtreatment (using too many pills) or undertreatment by ignoring the pain. The most important medication issue is to NOT go for the strongest medication with your first symptoms. Your continued use could eventually make you tolerant or possibly addicted. This may cause difficulty obtaining stronger pain relief. Start easy and go up the ladder of relief.

OTC's

PLEASE check with your Primary Care Practitioner (PCP) before taking any medications to avoid reactions with your current prescriptive medications.

Topicals

(Creams and rubs) These treatments should be used before taking pills. Many of them contain salicylate, or capsaicin, camphor, lidocaine, or menthol for occasional symptom relief. They are not to be used for long-term management of OA or inflammatory arthritis. Gel (Voltaren) is available over-the-counter without a prescription. There are prescriptive topicals available from your PCP.

Tylenol

(Acetaminophen) is the primary medication to treat arthritic pain, but it does not control the disease or prevent joint damage. Warning: You should not exceed more than 3000 mg (3 grams) of Tylenol per 24 hours. If you take 325mg tablets, do not exceed 9 tabs/day; for 500mg, no more than 6 tabs/day. If you exceed these limits liver damage may occur.

NSAIDs

(Nonsteroidal Anti-Inflammatory Drugs) such as aspirin, ibuprofen (Motrin, Advil), naproxen (Aleve), diclofenac (Voltaren), celecoxib (Celebrex) and others relieve inflammation. Contact your PCP if you are on blood thinners or have stomach problems before taking NSAIDs. Exceeding the normal dosages will cause stomach discomfort, bleeding, and other complications.

PRESCRIPTIVE TREATMENTS/MEDICATION Injections

Steroids

Corticosteroids reduce swelling and pain relief for a few days or months. There are side effects and only 3-4 shots can be given per year.

Hyaluronic acid (HA)

This acts like a joint lubricant and may give shoulder or knee pain for up to 6 months.

There are many other special injections, contact your PCP.

Medications

Tramadol

This is a mild narcotic for those who cannot take Tylenol or NSAIDs for knee or hip pain.

Opiates

These are used only for short term treatment due to concerns about dependency and toxicities, especially in seniors. Non- tramadol opioids include: Morphine, codeine, oxycodone, oxymorphone and transdermal fentanyl patches. Your PCP can choose the best medication for you.

Duloxetine (Cymbalta)

This is not a narcotic and is used for major depressive disorder. It also relieves musculoskeletal pain like OA especially for knee pain. It is used for those who have had a partial relief with Tylenol and NSAIDs.

There is constant research for new medications and treatments for OA. Your PCP can always give you accurate information for your specific problem and health history. Do not depend on Dr. Google. Next month I will write about conservative treatment and managing your day-to-day arthritic discomfort.
