NOTES FROM THE MEN'S DROP-IN

Carl Barton & Jefy Gaines

Spring is in the air. There is mostly a Pisces Sun in March, ergo, it will be a gentle, kind, and caring month. SAGE/

Prime Gentlemen Men's Hybrid Drop-In meets every Wednesday, 1:00pm to 2:00pm: In person at the Pride Center, Room 204, and via Zoom. Doors open at 12:45 pm for a little extra "schmoozing." All are welcome. We officially start at 1:00pm, first with announcements and then we share whatever is on our minds – activities, family stories, theatre, movies, restaurants, vacations, and current events. It's all in good fun and sometimes it does get serious. We are here to support each other. We close with sharing some jokes. Sometimes the jokes are not that funny and audience moaning is acceptable, but since it's always good-hearted fun, we give our jokesters an "A" for effort. Captain Carl trained me to be your host, and I am indebted to him for his tutelage. I love him and appreciate all he has done for SAGE, the Drop-In, and scheduling Drop-In activities and events. He is going to take it easy for a while. He is involved with physical therapy and he's doing great. He has a positive attitude and many friends and activities in his residential community. I look forward to him getting back in the saddle with us, when he's ready. So, come join us in person or on Zoom! Any questions can be emailed to Jefy at jefgain@aol.com, write "SAGE of South Florida" in the subject line.

SAGE NIGHT OUT

Ed Slough

Join us on WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22nd, when SAGE is having an informal dinner at Tropics Grille, 2000 Wilton Drive, Wilton Manors. Drinks and cocktails will be from 5:30pm to 6:30pm, with "Happy Hour" prices at the bar, and dinner at 6:30pm. Tropics has offered SAGE all dinners at half-price (no longer 2-for-1) to make the evening simpler for you. This is an event for friends to get together and celebrate the ability to socialize in person once again. It should be a good time for all. Please email me to let me know if you plan to attend so I can give Tropics a heads-up. My email is: wildhybrid@aol.com. Thanks!

SOCIAL LITES

Sal Orlando

Spring is here! What a wonderful time of year, except that it's a prelude to our hot, sticky summer which will soon be upon us.

This past month we celebrated Valentine's Day on February 12 at Cafe Vico. What a turnout! The bar is absolutely gorgeous, drinks were yummy, and the food was superb. What else could we expect from an upscale Italian Restaurant that's been here for years. The waiters were so accommodating, and the ambiance was very festive. Everyone enjoyed themselves.

This month, we go to Tropical Acres on Sunday, March 26th, at 12 PM for Cocktails and Conversation followed by 1 PM Dinner, for our Annual Meeting where SAGE elects its Board Members for the coming year. What a great venue, wonderful service, great food, in our very own private banquet room. It promises to be a terrific affair with top-notch entertainment. Don't forget to get your reservations in before the deadline, 1 PM, Tuesday, March 21st.

Save The Date: Saturday, April 22nd, by popular demand, we return to Anthony's Clam Bar and Grill.

As you all know, member pricing for our events is partially subsidized by SAGE, and will continue to do so. But, in lieu of the current out-of-control inflation, venues are forced to raise their prices considerably, some as much as 1/3 more. Therefore, member pricing will go up for our events to reflect such changes. As always, it's not fair to our members, that nonmembers should be partially subsidized also. Therefore, nonmember pricing will reflect the total cost paid to the venue by SAGE, plus entertainment and other expenses, if any, for each event.

Please Note: There is a reason for SAGE to have a reservation cutoff date and time for each event. Therefore, no reservations will be accepted after such time.

Also, those of you who would like to sit together at one of our events, please arrive early and at the same time, or wait for one another before checking in, so your party will be able to sit at the same table.

As always, for ongoing activities, consult your SAGE Calendar for meeting times and places.

Ciao for now!

SAGE BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

P.J. Vernon's - *Bath Haus, A Thriller - follows Oliver Park, a recovering addict from Indiana who finally has everything he ever wanted: Sobriety and a loving, wealthy partner in Nathan, a prominent DC trauma surgeon. Despite their difference in age and their disparate backgrounds, they have made a perfect life together. With everything at risk, Oliver should not be visiting a gay bathhouse but through the entrance he goes and, once inside, he meets and follows a man into a private room. What happens next turns into a nightmare as things go terribly wrong and Oliver barely escapes with his life.

Racing home in full-blown terror as a hand-shaped bruise grows dark on his neck, he knows the truth will destroy Nathan and everything they have together and so Oliver does the thing he used to do so well: He lies. What follows next is a wild ride through a classic runaway-train narrative full of escalating thrills and mind-bending twists. The tension builds to an unbearable level, leaving the reader on the edge of their seat.

Nominated for a Lambda Literary Award, please consider joining the SAGE Book Group in a discussion of this gripping novel on Saturday, March 11, 2023, at the Stonewall Library, 1300 E. Sunrise Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale from 11 AM to 12 Noon – no reservation is required for this event.

SAGE LUNCH & LEARN

A Silent Quiet Act

We do not talk about it and we are silent when we hear of someone who commits it. The act is suicide. Yes, it is sad and those who contemplate it are going down the rabbit hole and cannot see any alternatives for their pain. Afterward, we are left with a one-word question, WHY? There is help and we who are the families and friends left behind need to be knowledgeable of the signs and symptoms before the act is committed.

Senior Facts

- U.S. Senior total population is 12%, but we account for 18% of the suicides.
- Seniors plan suicide more carefully and use more lethal methods. Men use guns and women use pills.
- One in four seniors will succeed in suicide while comparison one in 200 youths.
- Men over 65 have a 20% rate while for those over 90 years it's 34%.

Reasons for Senior Suicide

1. Loneliness. 2. Grief over lost loved ones. 3. Loss of the ability to do self-care and daily activities. 4. Chronic illness and pain. 5. Cognitive Impairment. 6. Financial problems. All of which leads to depression and then the rabbit hole.

Warning Signs

The most obvious warning sign is an intent to commit suicide. The most important question to ask after they state they want to kill themselves is:

Do You Have a Plan?

If they do have a plan, ask what is their plan. A plan is the highest risk for suicide. Your next step is to obtain help. Contact The 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline (988) which can serve as a valuable resource for helping you determine the next steps. This may make the individual angry at you but anger is better than attending their funeral.

Other signs of suicidal ideation include: depression; prior suicide attempt; hopelessness; loss of interest in activities they used to enjoy; giving away beloved items or changing their will; excessive risk-taking; avoiding social activities; neglecting self-care, medical regimens, and grooming; exhibiting a preoccupation with death; inflexible personality exhibiting difficulty to change; personality change; substance abuse; access to firearms or prescriptive pain medications; or lacking concern for personal safety.

Five Action Steps

The National Suicide Prevention Lifelines suggest these steps to assist you with someone who is thinking about suicide:

Ask. "Are you thinking about suicide?" and "How can I help you?" initiate a conversation in a supportive and unbiased way. Be sure to listen carefully to their answers and acknowledge their emotional pain. Help the person stay focused on all the reasons why they should want to keep living.

Be there. Be physically present to avoid isolation and provide a sense of connectedness. If a face-to-face visit is not possible call, text, or video call. Be sure not to make any promises that you are unable to keep.

Keep them safe. Find out if the person has already made any attempts on their life. Do they have access to guns or dangerous medications for their planned method of self-harm? Learning the answers to these questions can help you understand whether this individual is in immediate danger.

Help them connect. If a senior in your life is thinking about suicide, it's important for them to establish support systems they can rely on now and in future moments of crisis. This includes resources available in their local community. Find out if the at-risk person is currently seeing a mental health counselor. If not, the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) offers a searchable, confidential directory of mental health providers across the U.S.

Follow up. Research has shown that following up can reduce suicide-related deaths in high-risk populations. Once you've had an initial conversation with the vulnerable person and helped them establish a support network, make sure to check-in. This can be done with a quick phone call, text message, or even a card. Ask if there is anything else you can do to help them get through this difficult time. The simple act of reaching out and showing you care can truly mean the difference between life and death.

All Medicare plans cover mental health services. We are our own community to help each other. Attend SAGE social events and keep alive and living well.
