The Newsletter of SAGE of South Florida

November 2023

Henry David Thoreau wrote: I am grateful for what I am and have. My thanksgiving is perpetual. This Thanksgiving, while contemplating your gratitude for who you are and what you have, why not take a moment to consider how SAGE adds to your quality of life. The mission of SAGE of South Florida is to enrich the lives of the LGBTQ+ elder community by providing opportunities for social interaction and connections and, yes, to encourage the creation of friendships. Research by the Mayo Clinic finds that friendship plays a crucial role in promoting good health. A study by Michigan State University reports that supportive friendships in old age were a stronger predictor of well-being than having strong family connections. So, take advantage of all the activities SAGE has to offer to stay connected. Make time to meet with your old friends and to make some new ones.

Make your Thanksgiving perpetual. Do not celebrate Thanksgiving only on the fourth Thursday of November. Celebrate it every day of the year.

NOTES FROM THE MEN'S DROP-IN

Jefy Gaines

November in South Florida and I still keep my air conditioning on 73-74 degrees and yes, I really do appreciate air conditioning. It has finally cooled down markedly, thank goodness. The month is mostly in a Scorpio Sun, which means it will be an enigmatic month – seductive, beguiling, with spiritual illumination and emotional intimacy. The month will be about art and intellectualism. Relationships are paramount this month, as are harmonious partnerships and new initiatives. It is a month of viewing everything with multiple perspectives. And, it's Thanksgiving, a holiday of celebration and gratitude to enjoy with our family and friends. Make sure you let them know that you love them.

Be sure to check out our SAGE/Prime Gentlemen Men's Hybrid Drop-In which meets every Wednesday, 1:00pm to 2:00pm: In person at the Pride Center, Room 204, and via Zoom. Doors open at 12:45pm for a little extra "schmoozing." All are welcome. We officially start at 1:00pm, first with announcements and then some sharing about what's going on in our lives: movies, dinners, family, and feelings. We close with a little kibitzing and sharing some jokes. Sometimes comical, sometimes not so much. Moaning is permitted, but it's always good-spirited fun. So, come join us in person or on Zoom! Any questions can be emailed to Jefy at jefgains@aol.com. Write "SAGE of South Florida" in the subject line.

SAGE ON THE BORDER/ALTERNATIVES (SOBA)

SOCIAL LITES

Sal Orlando

My favorite time of year is upon us, when the weather starts to cool, and we look forward to the holidays. This is why we live in South Florida, 8 months of paradise. Except we don't get to see the beautiful fall foliage as they do up north.

Last month we had a terrific Oktoberfest at The Am-bry, on October 24th. What a quaint and cozy venue with great service and a delicious meal. The staff couldn't have been nicer. All this made for a terrific Autumn event.

This month we return to an old-time favorite, Zuckerello's on Thursday, November 16th at 5PM for cocktails and mingling at BOGO pricing, followed by a scrumptious Italian dinner. Their signature dish, Chicken Zukerello never disappoints. Bring your appetite. Remember, reservations close on Wednesday, November 15th at 1 PM. Don't miss this event.

Save The Date: Sunday, December 17th, our favorite Holiday venue, The Embassy Suites on 17th Street Causeway, for our Annual Holiday Party.

As you all know, member pricing for our events is partially subsidized by SAGE, and will continue to do so. But, in lieu of the current out-of-control inflation, venues are forced to raise their prices considerably, some as much as one-third more.

Fortunately, SAGE recently and most graciously received a very generous donation to be used to subsidize SAGE's monthly events. Therefore, member pricing which began May 2023 subsidies will be more substantial allowing us to partially offset the inflationary spikes occurring at this time. As always, it's not fair to our members, that nonmembers should be partially subsidized also. Therefore, nonmember pricing will reflect the total cost paid to the venue by SAGE, plus entertainment and other expenses, if any, for each event.

Please Note: There is a reason for SAGE to have a reservation cut-off date and time for each event. Therefore, no reservations will be accepted after such time.

Also, USPS has been slow in delivering mail lately, therefore, please send your event reservations together with payment as soon as possible to avoid not getting them to the SAGE office in time.

Those of you who would like to sit together at one of our events, please arrive early and at the same time, or wait for one another before checking in, so your party will be able to sit at the same table.

As always, for ongoing activities, consult your SAGE Calendar for meeting times and places.

Ciao for now!

SAGE BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

A magical island. A dangerous task. A burning secret.

Lambda Literary Award-winning author TJ Klune's best-selling, contemporary fantasy – The House in the Cerulean Sea – is an enchanting love story, masterfully told, about the profound experience of discovering an unlikely family in an unexpected place—and realizing that family is yours.

Linus Baker leads a quiet, solitary life. At forty, he lives in a tiny house with a devious cat and his old records. As a Case Worker at the Department in Charge of Magical Youth, he spends his days overseeing the well-being of children in government-sanctioned orphanages.

Linus must set aside his fears and determine whether the children are likely to bring about the end of days.

But the children are not the only secret the island keeps. Their caretaker is the charming and enigmatic Arthur Parnassus, who will do anything to keep his wards safe. As Arthur and Linus grow closer, long-held secrets are exposed and Linus must make a choice: destroy a home or watch the world burn.

TJ Klune has a knack for creating endearing characters and readers will grow to love Arthur and the orphans alongside Linus. Linus himself is a lovable protagonist despite his recklessness and the author aptly handles his evolving feelings and morals. We invite you to join the SAGE Book Group in a discussion about this New York Times bestseller on Saturday, November 11, 2023, at the Stonewall Library, located at 1300 E. Sunrise Blvd., Fort Lauderdale. The event is free, and no reservations are required. The discussion will take place from 11 AM to 12 noon.

No Parking

Recently a very good friend of over 60 years informed me that she had contracted Parkinson's Disease (PD). She was in the process of moving from her home to a senior center for future assistance. It was heartbreaking to hear. Parkinson's disease is a neurodegenerative disease second to Alzheimer's affecting over two million seniors over 60. The cause of PD is unknown but a combination of genetic, environmental factors and toxic exposure is a possibility. Research has shown that most cases cluster in the Midwest and Northeastern states. It occurs in men more than women. A Medicare study has shown that Asian and African Americans have almost half the risk than Whites. Also, an increased incidence of PD is in women from the effects of estrogen with early menopause.

Cause

PD is caused by a lack of dopamine in the brain. The special type of neuron brain cell that produces dopamine starts to die. Early symptoms are subtle but these brain cells slowly die and the symptoms increase.

Signs and Symptoms

The following are the most common signs and symptoms of PD. Some of these symptoms are very common with other problems. PD symptoms start slowly and can take months or years before a definite diagnosis can be made.

- Tremor. Shaking of hand, arm, foot, or leg usually at rest and gets better with movement. Starts on one side of the body and progresses to both sides.
- Small handwriting. Letters get smaller and words appear closer together.
- Stiffness and difficulty walking. Individuals may swing their arms less when walking. They develop a shuffling gait which is a problem of lifting foot off the ground and taking a full step.
- Trouble sleeping. There may be jerking movements while in deep sleep. Pain or restlessness in legs which goes away when getting up and moving around. Frequent bathroom visits and unplanned day sleeping. Difficulty rising or rolling over in bed.
- Voice changes. A slower or softer speaking voice. Also muttering, stuttering or trouble articulating words.
- Constipation. Difficulty or straining during bowel movements.
- Bladder problems. Overactive bladder and unexpected urgency.
- Loss of smell. May start years before movement symptoms.
- Inability to make facial expressions. Difficult time expressing joy or a laughing facial expression. They may look mad upset or serious when in a good mood.
- Hunching over. Stooping slouching or leaning when standing. Also, trouble balancing and maintaining posture.
- Rigidity or slow movements. May take longer to button a shirt or tie shoes.

Diagnosis

A diagnosis is made if the patient has two of the four cardinal signs of PD: 1. Tremors; 2. Muscle rigidity; 3. Slow movement; and 4. Inability to maintain balance, standing or moving.

Treatment

There is no cure for PD but there are treatments. Medications such as Levodopa (which replaces the lost dopamine) is the most effective treatment. Medications can be used that mimic the effects of dopamine. Additional treatment such as physical, occupational and speech therapy, deep brain stimulation, exercise (THAT word again) supportive therapies, assistive devices, and lifestyle modifications.

If you experience some of the early symptoms of PD, contact your Health Practitioner early. Have a Happy Thanksgiving. 😊

THE SAGE/PRIME GENTLEMEN MOVIE

Judy's been described as many things: a free spirit, a day dreamer, a boy-crazy hot mess. But this is going to be the summer it all comes together for this ambitious, 30-something drag queen/cater-waiter and his best friend, Chrissy. That is, until Chrissy's priorities suddenly shift, forcing a disillusioned Judy to examine his life and priorities as a queer artist, and rediscover himself in the process. In this dark comedy, Chrissy Judy explores the universal pain of breaking up with your best friends and questions, "What do you do when your chosen family no longer chooses you?"

At the heart of Chrissy Judy is the concept of queer friendships and partnerships, coexisting within a world full of people that judge practically everything about them. This is a film about reckoning and embracing reality. A reality that's not as loud as music in clubs, or as steamy as a casual encounter. Reality sometimes is finding the truth when speaking to your friend and being able to see them for what they truly are."

SHORT FILM: THE DISCO YEARS

This gay "coming-out" film is really about homophobia. The young soon-to-be-out gay boy in this film, Tom suffers the stings of the homophobic reactions of his fellow students, and even from his doting mother. But the real victim in this film is the English school teacher, Mr. Reese. At first, Tom joins in heaping scorn on the teacher, then he must decide if it isn't time to open the closet door. A crisis ensues with his mom, and disco proves to be his safety.
